ARLINGTON HEIGHTS HERALD

VOLUME 18, NUMBER 4 | Published every Friday by H. C. PADDOCK SONS | ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AT ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL. | ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1944 | 2 SECTIONS - 12 PAGES | $2.00 PER YEAR

War Fund campaign starts next week

Fred W. Gieseke, Jr., who has accepted the chairmanship of the War Fund drive for Arlington Heights, has great hopes that Arlington Heights will make its quota of $5,000 this year. "This is not an excessive amount," states Mr. Gieseke, "for a town of nearly 7,000 people who have over 600 of its boys in service—everyone of whom will be benefitted in some way."

Mr. Gieseke, himself a volunteer, is depending on other volunteers to do the job in a big way. He was not ready to announce his captains before the Herald went to press, but by the end of the week expects to have all of the canvassers lined up for a whirlwind campaign the early days of the drive which starts October 2.

But for the benefit of those who are not familiar with it, here is the general story, in a small nutshell:

The National War Fund is a federation of the leading war-related appeals, except Red Cross, to provide essential wartime services to our armed forces, merchant marine and prisoners of war and to supply essential wartime relief to our Allies and to refugees from occupied countries.

The National War Fund is government-endorsed but not government-controlled. It operates in full accord with the President's War Relief Control Board.

The National War Fund works through its affiliated state organizations and they, in turn, through county committees. Every town and township is included.

In the 1943-44 campaign some thirty-five million Americans gave $126,016,617 to the National War Fund.

The funds contributed are now at work, being spent by the member agencies of the National War Fund in urgently needed services. These funds provide for the off-duty recreation and entertainment of our own fighting forces through USO; for comforts and care for our merchant seamen through United Seamen's Service; assistance for prisoners of war through War Prisoners Aid; and physical relief for those of our Allies who have suffered at the hands of the Axis invaders.

Close contact is maintained by the National War Fund with government agencies and other interested organizations to insure aid being given where there is present need, and where such aid can be administered effectively and economically, without duplication.

CARD PARTY TONIGHT

Many tickets have been sold for the Arlington Heights nurses club card party at the North School on Friday, September 29, at 8 p. m. Funds raised will be used for various philanthropic local projects. Tickets are 48c each.

$2 ad. sells $8,500 home in 24 hours

Paul Timmerhouse, Palatine, says: "I have heard a lot about the pulling power of want ads in Paddock Publications but I never thought they would work so fast. Within 24 hours after last week's paper was in the mails, I sold for $8,500 my house that I advertised therein."

The same service awaits any advertiser, whether it is a household article, an automobile, or a team of horses.

Sells own home to help out the other fellow

J. D. Flentie, Arlington Heights realtor has sold his home on North Belmont. J. D. does not know yet if the buyer talked faster than he or whether he sold it because he felt sorry for the fellow who wanted the home so badly that he "camped on his door step."

Carl Behrens, Mr. Flentie's partner, says that their firm had sold so many houses the last few weeks that J. D. was in a selling mood and sold the house before he realized that it was his own home he had sold.

The Herald believes that Mr. Behrens is right. The number of homes that Flentie & Behrens have sold would place any realtor in a selling mood. Here are some of the realty transfers that have passed through that office recently.

Mrs. Sturm Hilliard's decision to move to Lake Geneva made possible three realty deals. She has sold her home at 803 N. Chestnut to Carl Johnson, who in turn has sold his former home at Haddow and Eastman to Al Price of South State road, who in turn has sold his former home.

Wm. Stagaard of DesPlaines, wanted to live in Arlington. He was able to have that hope realized by purchasing the Moran home at 612 North State of Geo. Raupp, who in turn purchased the Wm. Metz home at St. James and Haddow. Mr. Metz is moving to Mt. Prospect.

Mrs. Marie Koeb, of Palatine, has purchased the Chas. Gath home at 802 North State road.

Wm. Stade has purchased 15 acres and the Christ Schoenbeck homestead at State and Hintz roads.

Fred Jasper of Chicago, who says that he looked all over west and northwest suburbs before he found what he wanted, has bought the Sid Allen home, 717 North Chestnut street.

The former Blume - Garland brick business block on Kensington road, occupied by Wm. G. Meyer and Arlington Sheet Metal, has been sold by Flentie & Behrens to a Chicago party who purchased the property as an investment.

J. D. was quick to recover from his selling spree and has purchased a home for himself just so he will not have to leave town.

Lt. Edw. Dearie killed in France

Word was received Sunday of the death in action of Edward Dearie of Arlington Heights. Lt. Dearie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dearie, was killed August 30, while commanding a company of infantry in action against the Germans in France.

Lt. Dearie's last letter home was written August 22. In this letter he stated that at the end of the following week he would be a captain. It was in the middle of that week that he suffered death. Details of his death have not been revealed as yet.

LT. EDWARD DEARIE

Edward Dearie was a graduate of Arlington Heights high school in June, 1936. He was granted a college degree from Amherst college, Massachusetts, in 1940. He had previously attended Purdue university, Indiana, and Riverside, California, college.

Lt. Dearie entered service in April, 1940. He reported to Camp Forrest, Tenn., for basic training. He was later sent to Fort Benning, Ga., officer candidate school, where he became a second lieutenant in August, 1942. After two weeks at Camp Blanding, Fla., Eddie was sent to England, where he arrived in October of that year.

Lt. Dearie stayed in England for 20 months, where he became a first lieutenant. He crossed the channel to France on D-day, June 6, of this year. He was often mentioned in press dispatches telling of the work of his company against the Germans.

While in combat Lt. Dearie received the combat infantryman's badge, plus the bronze star with two oak leaf clusters.

National Tea store managers end strike

The National Tea stores at Mt. Prospect, Bensenville and Arlington Heights reopened Wednesday morning after a strike of the store managers that started last Thursday. The Palatine store was not closed. Newspaper stories claim that the company suffered a loss of nearly half a million dollars in spoiled food stuffs, many of it on the point system.

The striking store managers were asking for recognition of their union, and a contract that would provide increased salary and changes in existing contracts. The company made no effort to enter the stores which they claimed were the responsibility of the store managers.

The vote, taken Tuesday to return to work was taken at a seven-hour meeting, attended by about 200 managers, followed certification of the strike to the War Labor board at Washington and an understanding it would be submitted to non-governmental arbitrators.

Red Wing dance this Saturday

Although the Arlington Red Wings baseball season ended last Sunday, the club's 1944 activities will not end until Saturday night, September 30, with a public dance in the Arlington Heights Field house. Wally Hahnfeldt's orchestra, famous throughout this area for its rhythmic arrangements of old and new songs, will make this dance an affair one old folks as well as the younger set can enjoy.

The Red Wings had an exceptionally good season in view of the local players available and the fact that many of the visiting teams from Chicago had players from minor league teams not operating because of the war.

Plans for next season to give Arlington fans more and better baseball are already under way.

Report first polio case in Schaumburg

Schaumburg has its first polio case this fall. The victim is Mary Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Botterman, who reside on route 53, south of Higgins road. The girl attends the Christian Day School taught by Paul Gronke. Health authorities are making a careful check of other pupils who attend the same school.

Wounded in France

Leonard Thake of Arlington Heights has been wounded in France, it was learned Saturday. A telegram from the war department stated he was slightly wounded in action in France.

Leonard has been in service for some time, spending more than two years in Iceland. He was then transferred to England, then France.

County wide registration to be October 10

Voters in the country towns of Cook county will have the same opportunity to register in their precincts on October 10 as the residents of Chicago. This was a result of a resolution introduced by County Commissioner William Busse and seconded by William Erickson at a meeting of the county board held on September 20.

In every precinct in the country towns, a place of registration will be designated which will be open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. on Tuesday, October 10.

Voters who are now registered and still reside in the same precinct do not have to register again. The sole purpose of this registration is for the purpose of taking care of those voters who are not properly registered at the present time.

In case any voter has moved from the city of Chicago or from a precinct in the country towns under the election commissioners and he has not registered again with the village or township clerk, he must do so at this registration on October 10 in order to be able to cast his ballot on November 7.

If he has moved from another precinct in the country towns not under the jurisdiction of the election commissioners and has not signed a change of address card, he must sign this card on October 10 at the place of registration. Voters in the county in order to register must reside in the precinct for 30 days, the county for 90 days and the state for one year on the day of election.

If any citizen has a question with reference to his right to vote or register that he does not understand, it is suggested that he call his village, township clerk or committeeman of the respective township in which he resides.

Wool blankets are needed for infantile paralysis victims

There is a serious need for old wool blankets or pieces of blankets at the hospitals. The blankets are cut up and used for compresses for the Kenney treatment of infantile paralysis. Cotton blankets cannot be used because they retain too much moisture. This is a community project and Arlington Heights has never failed to respond when called upon for help. Mrs. John Peroutka has been appointed chairman of the committee in charge of collecting wool blankets and any one having blankets to give can get in touch with her by calling Arlington Heights 1358-R. Please do not delay as the need is urgent.

Truck drivers to be out of luck after Oct. 1st

E. H. Malzahm, chairman of Arlington Heights Ration Board says that there will be great hue and cry after October 1st on the part of truckers who will not have their gas stamps. Repeated notices have been published in Paddock Publications, but very few applications have been filed.

Present stamps expire September 30 and can not be used in the purchase of gas after that date. Applicants must bring their ODT certificates with them.

Joe Ketterman dies in Washington

Joseph Ketterman, long a resident of Palatine and Arlington Heights, died last week at Olalla, Wash. Joe had been sick for some time, being overcome by poison gas in a Washington shipyard accident more than a year ago. He never completely recovered from this, also incurring arthritis in recent months.

Joe will be remembered by Palatine residents as one time working at the A & P food store and being quite active in the Epworth league of the Methodist church. He also built a trailer and operated a traveling farm store, covering much of the rural territory in this area. For several years prior to moving to Washington he operated a sheet metal business at Barrington.

Services were held Saturday at Olalla. Joe was 32 years old, and leaves his wife, Louise, and two children, Edith Louise and Elizabeth Grace. His mother, Mrs. Louella Ketterman, had been living with them for some time before Joe's death. Also surviving are three brothers, Paul, of Barrington; James, in the Army, and Edwin, Jr., of Washington Park.

Flying field needed when flyers return

Local boys who have been flying for Uncle Sam are not going to be content to just drive an automobile. That is what Virgil Horath told members of the Arlington Heights Lions Club at its last meeting. Mr. Horath stated that the airport now used by the navy south of town would probably be abandoned and it is none too early to consider its acquirement as one of the post-war jobs for the community.

Lion Horath also has some other ideas on post-war planning. He told the Lions that active support should be given to the post-war program of the Illinois Department of Conservation, which calls for the expenditure of $200,000 in every county in the state to be used in the construction of lakes, reforestation projects and game management (public hunting and fishing grounds).

Horath said, "With the expenditure of a little money, many ponds and small lakes in this area could be made good game areas for sportsmen."

A splendid dinner was enjoyed by all Lions present. Guests included Cecil McWharter, M. F. Egdorf, principal of the local high school, and Professor E. T. McSwain of Northwestern University.

After dinner a brief business session was conducted by Lion President Virgil Horath. Lion Prellberg announced that Gordon Brandt of Chicago, will talk on the history of Japan and its relationship to the present conflict at the next meeting October 3.

Goldthwaite joins elementary school board

At a meeting of the board of education of district No. 25, Arlington Heights, held September 26, Albert E. Goldthwaite was appointed a member of the board. This appointment fills a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Harold S. Ratliff, who is now in the Navy.

Mr. Ratliff was elected to the board of education in April, 1943. Members of the board of education have expressed their deep appreciation for the services rendered by Mr. Ratliff. He has been missed by his associates on the board.

Mr. Goldthwaite lives at 500 E. Park and has a son in the South school and a daughter in the North school. He has been active in civic affairs and is now president of the Scarsdale Improvement association.

Pilot Bob Haake reported missing in flight

First Lieut Robert W. Haake, of the Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haake, 407 S. Ioka, Mt. Prospect, has been reported missing in flight in the Asiatic area since September 17. His wife and family hold out the greatest hope for his safe return, especially since the receipt of a letter written by their son September 14 in which he told of his assignment to the search and rescue squadron in that area and the method used to rescue missing fliers.

First news of Lt. Haake's disappearance was received by his wife, the former Louise Williams of Trenton, Texas, whom he married April 26, 1943, and who has been residing with her parents. She forwarded the sad news to her husband's parents Sunday.

LT. ROBERT HAAKE

Lt. Haake left the University of Illinois to enter the service January 26, 1942, received his commission at Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas, the following November and was then assigned to the Ferry Command, reporting at Dallas, Texas. Later he was transferred to the Air Transport Command and in June of this year was sent overseas to India, where he flew cargo ships "over the hump" to China. A few weeks ago, at his own request, he was transferred to a B-25 and the Search and Rescue Squadron.

Possibilities for his rescue seem not to be impossible after reading the last letter written by him to his parents, who at the request of the Herald, have consented to its publication so that their son's many friends and former classmates at Arlington Heights high school may have similar hopes. The letter reads in part:

"A native runner brought a message to one of the Jungle Outposts, telling us of a Fighter pilot in a native village. This boy had walked, through dense damp jungle for twenty days, eating bamboo shoots and insects. He came to a native village burning with malaria with badly ulcerated legs (from viscious leeches that covered his body) and starving to death. The natives did their best for him (they get paid by Uncle Sam for their trouble) but, he could not have survived on the natives' diet, and he needed medical attention. We located the village and dropped a doctor and another man by parachute with supplies. They then got the flyer down to a river and began paddling out in a rubber life raft. We made a daily check of their progress, and when in need of anything we dropped it to them. By this time we had another expedition going up the river to them in a power boat. The two parties met, the sick boy was taken into the boat and within 48 hours of our discovery of his position he was resting comfortably in a hospital.

"Rescue work is the primary purpose of our outfit, but we also spend hours searching jungles and mountains for wrecked planes and men down.

"Dad, I know you would like the opportunity to be in a deal like this. In a way it is a real education. It is of such happening that lives are moulded. This life offers sufficient time for thought and observation and then to, our life is not a completely unhappy one. One learns of real appreciation of comradeship and trust in a friend. I am probably getting wiser in the ways and vicissitudes of life daily. We take pleasures in simple things—the antics of our pet monkey amuse us, we learn and many times teach others in our bull sessions, and many things, little things like a cold shower, or a bottle of beer (always warm) that we always took for granted are now big events and almost luxuries to us. I hope when this war is ended I will be a better and bigger man for it all. The ways of the Lord are indeed strange to man in his foolish pride and ambition."

From the explanation of Lt. Haake's work the family knows that everything is being done to rescue him as he has been doing for his buddies.

Blue point tokens 'no good' after Saturday

Blue tokens expire this Saturday, housewives are reminded. The tokens, representing 1 point each, can be used this week only in multiples of ten for processed foods. All processed food point values have been set at multiples of ten, thus eliminating the necessity of the tokens.

The blue stamps, worth ten points each, are still valid, but the tokens will disappear from circulation Saturday night.

Housewives are also warned that spare stamp 37, used to acquire up to 20 pounds of sugar for canning (if you can find the sugar), expires October 31. No permits for canning sugar for spare stamp 37 will be granted after that date.

Arlington community nurse resigns

The resignation of Mrs. Clara Lund, Arlington Heights Community nurse, has been accepted by the C. T. I. and becomes effective October 1. She returns to her old position in the Elgin City Schools, a position that does not require as much effort, time and responsibility as the Arlington position.

"I believe," stated Mrs. Lund Wednesday, "that Arlington Heights has as fine a health program as any community northwest of Chicago. I have enjoyed the work here, have made many friends and have had the best of cooperation from the town, the health committee and the school personnel."

Mrs. Lund was very frank to the Herald over the reason for leaving. The increasing population of the community, the greater number of pupils in the high school and the health program that has become larger every year, has become too much for her health. Her vacation last summer was entirely spent in recovering the strength that she had lost the preceding months.

Announcement of Mrs. Lund's successor will be made in next week's issue of this paper. The health committee regret her departure, but has been assured by the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute that a competent nurse will be found to properly carry on the work.

Newspapers in place of hand grenades

Mayor Goedke says that the war would end a lot sooner if our forces had Curley Rodewald, the newsdealer, to throw hand grenades at the enemy. Since Curly has had to take over some of his paper routes he has acquired a professional touch to the throwing of the papers to the 'exact spot' on the porches of his customers. When the reporter interviewed Curley, he was told "my customers do not do any shooting at me."

No more hospital charge against townships

Taxpayers of the country towns have been saved thousands of dollars. This is a result of a resolution introduced by County Commissioner Busse and seconded by Commissioner John Mackler at a meeting of the county board held on September 20, which provided that all non-pauper patients who have not sufficient money or relatives to pay for their care in the county hospital be paid by the county and not by the respective townships in which they reside.

In the past the county board has been paying the expense of non-pauper patients of the city of Chicago in the township of Cicero but not for the other townships of the country towns.

As a result of the passage of this resolution, in the future, all expenses on non-pauper cases sent to the county hospital where the individual does not have sufficient money or relatives to pay, the charges will be borne by the county board.

The organization of township supervisors have been opposing the charges that have been made against them for hospital patients and have refused to honor bills that have been presented to them for that purpose.

Seek public sentiment to save golf course

Harold and Stella Willson, owners of the Mt. Prospect Country club are this week making a direct appeal to public sentiment in Mt. Prospect, which if successful, will save the golf course. The village board has denied the Willsons the right to disconnect from the incorporated area the golf course, known on subdivision plats as Lot 18.

The plan of Mr. Willson allows the club house proper to remain within the village where it will be subject to all taxes and special assessments.

Mr. Willson recognizes that right now is a golden opportunity for the development of real estate but he prefers to have the golf club property remain in its present use, which he says cannot be done if it is to be subject to taxes and future special assessments that are assessed on property within a village.

If the property has to remain in the village, it would be good business sense to subdivide and be ready for the building boom that will start at the end of the war.

Mr. Willson makes it plain that if Mt. Prospect people want to retain the golf course, they should bring influence to bear upon the village board which on the advice of its attorney has denied such action.

The statement of Mr and Mrs. Willson appears this week in the Mt. Prospect Herald edition.

PTA membership drive starts next Monday

On Friday of this week children of the Arlington Heights schools will carry form letters and copies of this year's PTA program home to parents. Next week will be devoted to contacting parents to acquaint them with the reasons why their membership in PTA is important.

A small folder put out by this great organization to which 3,054,950 parents and teachers in the United States belong, 208,250 of them residents of Illinois, says:

You are cordially invited to join this great civilian army of men and women enlisted in volunteer service to children and youth. There is a place for you in the active and growing National Congress of Parents and Teachers. Your understanding, effort, influence, and ability are needed to help carry forward a vital program of projects and activities.

It lists ten good reasons for joining the PTA. 1. In time of war, so many old-time basic values are in danger of being forgotten that it takes everything that every one of us can do to prevent our overlooking them. The PTA stands guard over just such values.

2. Children's needs won't wait. It doesn't take long to grow up. And growing up under unwholesome or undesirable conditions means tragedy to the child and loss to the nation. The PTA helps to prevent both.

3. Many heads are better than one. In the Parent-Teacher Association all members pool their thinking in a common cause.

4. We must do something about the increase in juvenile delinquency, the day care of war workers' children, and more than a dozen other pressing problems. Through the PTA you can contribute your share in these very necessary activities.

5. We want our boys and girls to grow into responsible adults. It's a good idea to let them see responsible adults from their own homes working together in the PTA. Remember that it is far easier to teach by example than by precept.

6. This world needs to learn exactly what democracy is all about, needs to see it in action at close range. Where better than in the PTA, one of the most democratic organizations in America?

7. We know more about training children than we used to, and it makes a difference in our way of handling them. The PTA brings you the latest and best information on child training.

8. We need a balance wheel for our war activities, some means of keeping our sense of proportion when the all-out war effort seems to obscure everything else. The PTA is grand at helping its members to put first things first.

9. We want to do something practical to help win this war, so that we can go back to normal living. Nothing in the world is more essential than working for the welfare of childhood and youth, so that when the war is won we shall have a fine sturdy generation to carry on.

10. Most of us have a more or less urgent desire to do something to make the world a little bit better. In the PTA we begin to feel that we can do something in this direction. Making the world better by rearing a better generation of children is the goal of the PTA.

The Arlington Heights PTA meets every third Tuesday in each school month of the year. The fee is fifty cents per parent for the year. In school rooms here there are fishermen posters. For each father who attends a meeting each child of his will be gratified by seeing a fish caught on the poster. His mother will make a star in the sky.

This reporter can think of no more compelling duty, either in peace time or during war time, than that of supporting an organization whose only concern is your child. Besides, ladies and gentlemen, the programs are GOOD, all of them, and there's a nice social hour with coffee and cake after each meeting.

8 women needed as girl scout adult leaders

More than eight adult leaders are needed this year to carry on the greatly expanded Girl Scout program in Arlington Heights, according to Mrs. Herman J. Carr, Organization Chairman on the G. S. Council.

Girl Scout national membership has been boosted from 671,000 at the time of Pearl Harbor to more than a million today. Interest in Scouting in Arlington Heights has brought local membership in the organization up to 175 Girl Scouts and Brownies. Many more women are needed to help the girls continue their Scout training.

Mrs. Frances Brooks, former executive secretary of Girl Scouts in Columbus, Ohio, is the new training chairman on the Arlington Heights Girl Scout Council.

Volunteers will be given the training necessary to Girl Scout leadership. Any woman over 21, with a liking for youngsters, a strong belief in democracy and two or three hours a week to give to activities outside of her home is eligible to serve as a troop leader.

"Women who have worked in Girl Scouting through the war years have found great satisfaction in doing their share on the 'youth front'" "Those who enter Scouting now, when all of the plans and possibilities for post-war activities are being explored, will find the chances for important national service even greater. The end of the war won't see the end of the problems which have put young people into the headlines too often."

As the emergency war services relax, many women who have received valuable training and experience, will have time to turn around and look for opportunities for putting their energy and skill to good use. "Who needs them more than the girls who will be tomorrow's citizens?"

"But girls can't wait to grow up until their mothers, sisters, aunts and friends have more time for them. They need the fun, guidance and opportunities for service in Scouting now—today. Scouting has helped many a girl weather the difficulties of wartime; it can be an even greater force in helping girls through the changes that will come with post-war readjustments. Women who enlist in Girl Scouting now will have the thrill and satisfaction of taking an active part in the solving of many of our country's post-war problems.

A special effort will be made to enroll at least eight women as leaders and assistant leaders of Girl Scout troops. All women who are interested in learning more about opportunities for service in Girl Scouting please call Mrs. Carr Arlington Heights 1864.

At the annual meeting of the Girl Scout Association Monday, Sept. 25, the following council members were elected:

Commissioner, Mrs. Alva H. Meyer.

Deputy Commissioner, Rev. Wm. F. Kamphenkel.

Secretary, to be announced later.

Treasurer, Mrs. Rex C. Volz.

Registrar, Mrs. E. H. Niemeyer.

Program Chairman, Mrs. H. J. Gregg.

Organization Chairman, Mrs. Frances Brooks.

Public Relations Chairman, Mrs. A. M. Neville.

Camp Chairman, Mrs. Geo. A. Glow.

Camp Co-chairman, Mrs. Jarvis.

Finance Chairman, Mr. Kenneth W. Kennedy.

The Local Scout organization wishes to express its appreciation to Rev. Kamphenkel, Mrs. Wm. C. Lathen, Mr. Bathje, Mrs. Wm. Walton and Mrs. J. C. Jones for the splendid work which they did on the Council last year.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS HERALD

VOLUME 18, NUMBER 4 | Published every Friday by H. C. PADDOCK SONS | ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AT ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL. | ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1944 | 2 SECTIONS - 12 PAGES | $2.00 PER YEAR

War Fund campaign starts next week

Fred W. Gieseke, Jr., who has accepted the chairmanship of the War Fund drive for Arlington Heights, has great hopes that Arlington Heights will make its quota of $5,000 this year. "This is not an excessive amount," states Mr. Gieseke, "for a town of nearly 7,000 people who have over 600 of its boys in service—everyone of whom will be benefitted in some way."

Mr. Gieseke, himself a volunteer, is depending on other volunteers to do the job in a big way. He was not ready to announce his captains before the Herald went to press, but by the end of the week expects to have all of the canvassers lined up for a whirlwind campaign the early days of the drive which starts October 2.

But for the benefit of those who are not familiar with it, here is the general story, in a small nutshell:

The National War Fund is a federation of the leading war-related appeals, except Red Cross, to provide essential wartime services to our armed forces, merchant marine and prisoners of war and to supply essential wartime relief to our Allies and to refugees from occupied countries.

The National War Fund is government-endorsed but not government-controlled. It operates in full accord with the President's War Relief Control Board.

The National War Fund works through its affiliated state organizations and they, in turn, through county committees. Every town and township is included.

In the 1943-44 campaign some thirty-five million Americans gave $126,016,617 to the National War Fund.

The funds contributed are now at work, being spent by the member agencies of the National War Fund in urgently needed services. These funds provide for the off-duty recreation and entertainment of our own fighting forces through USO; for comforts and care for our merchant seamen through United Seamen's Service; assistance for prisoners of war through War Prisoners Aid; and physical relief for those of our Allies who have suffered at the hands of the Axis invaders.

Close contact is maintained by the National War Fund with government agencies and other interested organizations to insure aid being given where there is present need, and where such aid can be administered effectively and economically, without duplication.

CARD PARTY TONIGHT

Many tickets have been sold for the Arlington Heights nurses club card party at the North School on Friday, September 29, at 8 p. m. Funds raised will be used for various philanthropic local projects. Tickets are 48c each.

$2 ad. sells $8,500 home in 24 hours

Paul Timmerhouse, Palatine, says: "I have heard a lot about the pulling power of want ads in Paddock Publications but I never thought they would work so fast. Within 24 hours after last week's paper was in the mails, I sold for $8,500 my house that I advertised therein."

The same service awaits any advertiser, whether it is a household article, an automobile, or a team of horses.

Sells own home to help out the other fellow

J. D. Flentie, Arlington Heights realtor has sold his home on North Belmont. J. D. does not know yet if the buyer talked faster than he or whether he sold it because he felt sorry for the fellow who wanted the home so badly that he "camped on his door step."

Carl Behrens, Mr. Flentie's partner, says that their firm had sold so many houses the last few weeks that J. D. was in a selling mood and sold the house before he realized that it was his own home he had sold.

The Herald believes that Mr. Behrens is right. The number of homes that Flentie & Behrens have sold would place any realtor in a selling mood. Here are some of the realty transfers that have passed through that office recently.

Mrs. Sturm Hilliard's decision to move to Lake Geneva made possible three realty deals. She has sold her home at 803 N. Chestnut to Carl Johnson, who in turn has sold his former home at Haddow and Eastman to Al Price of South State road, who in turn has sold his former home.

Wm. Stagaard of DesPlaines, wanted to live in Arlington. He was able to have that hope realized by purchasing the Moran home at 612 North State of Geo. Raupp, who in turn purchased the Wm. Metz home at St. James and Haddow. Mr. Metz is moving to Mt. Prospect.

Mrs. Marie Koeb, of Palatine, has purchased the Chas. Gath home at 802 North State road.

Wm. Stade has purchased 15 acres and the Christ Schoenbeck homestead at State and Hintz roads.

Fred Jasper of Chicago, who says that he looked all over west and northwest suburbs before he found what he wanted, has bought the Sid Allen home, 717 North Chestnut street.

The former Blume - Garland brick business block on Kensington road, occupied by Wm. G. Meyer and Arlington Sheet Metal, has been sold by Flentie & Behrens to a Chicago party who purchased the property as an investment.

J. D. was quick to recover from his selling spree and has purchased a home for himself just so he will not have to leave town.

Lt. Edw. Dearie killed in France

Word was received Sunday of the death in action of Edward Dearie of Arlington Heights. Lt. Dearie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dearie, was killed August 30, while commanding a company of infantry in action against the Germans in France.

Lt. Dearie's last letter home was written August 22. In this letter he stated that at the end of the following week he would be a captain. It was in the middle of that week that he suffered death. Details of his death have not been revealed as yet.

LT. EDWARD DEARIE

Edward Dearie was a graduate of Arlington Heights high school in June, 1936. He was granted a college degree from Amherst college, Massachusetts, in 1940. He had previously attended Purdue university, Indiana, and Riverside, California, college.

Lt. Dearie entered service in April, 1940. He reported to Camp Forrest, Tenn., for basic training. He was later sent to Fort Benning, Ga., officer candidate school, where he became a second lieutenant in August, 1942. After two weeks at Camp Blanding, Fla., Eddie was sent to England, where he arrived in October of that year.

Lt. Dearie stayed in England for 20 months, where he became a first lieutenant. He crossed the channel to France on D-day, June 6, of this year. He was often mentioned in press dispatches telling of the work of his company against the Germans.

While in combat Lt. Dearie received the combat infantryman's badge, plus the bronze star with two oak leaf clusters.

National Tea store managers end strike

The National Tea stores at Mt. Prospect, Bensenville and Arlington Heights reopened Wednesday morning after a strike of the store managers that started last Thursday. The Palatine store was not closed. Newspaper stories claim that the company suffered a loss of nearly half a million dollars in spoiled food stuffs, many of it on the point system.

The striking store managers were asking for recognition of their union, and a contract that would provide increased salary and changes in existing contracts. The company made no effort to enter the stores which they claimed were the responsibility of the store managers.

The vote, taken Tuesday to return to work was taken at a seven-hour meeting, attended by about 200 managers, followed certification of the strike to the War Labor board at Washington and an understanding it would be submitted to non-governmental arbitrators.

Red Wing dance this Saturday

Although the Arlington Red Wings baseball season ended last Sunday, the club's 1944 activities will not end until Saturday night, September 30, with a public dance in the Arlington Heights Field house. Wally Hahnfeldt's orchestra, famous throughout this area for its rhythmic arrangements of old and new songs, will make this dance an affair one old folks as well as the younger set can enjoy.

The Red Wings had an exceptionally good season in view of the local players available and the fact that many of the visiting teams from Chicago had players from minor league teams not operating because of the war.

Plans for next season to give Arlington fans more and better baseball are already under way.

Report first polio case in Schaumburg

Schaumburg has its first polio case this fall. The victim is Mary Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Botterman, who reside on route 53, south of Higgins road. The girl attends the Christian Day School taught by Paul Gronke. Health authorities are making a careful check of other pupils who attend the same school.

Wounded in France

Leonard Thake of Arlington Heights has been wounded in France, it was learned Saturday. A telegram from the war department stated he was slightly wounded in action in France.

Leonard has been in service for some time, spending more than two years in Iceland. He was then transferred to England, then France.

County wide registration to be October 10

Voters in the country towns of Cook county will have the same opportunity to register in their precincts on October 10 as the residents of Chicago. This was a result of a resolution introduced by County Commissioner William Busse and seconded by William Erickson at a meeting of the county board held on September 20.

In every precinct in the country towns, a place of registration will be designated which will be open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. on Tuesday, October 10.

Voters who are now registered and still reside in the same precinct do not have to register again. The sole purpose of this registration is for the purpose of taking care of those voters who are not properly registered at the present time.

In case any voter has moved from the city of Chicago or from a precinct in the country towns under the election commissioners and he has not registered again with the village or township clerk, he must do so at this registration on October 10 in order to be able to cast his ballot on November 7.

If he has moved from another precinct in the country towns not under the jurisdiction of the election commissioners and has not signed a change of address card, he must sign this card on October 10 at the place of registration. Voters in the county in order to register must reside in the precinct for 30 days, the county for 90 days and the state for one year on the day of election.

If any citizen has a question with reference to his right to vote or register that he does not understand, it is suggested that he call his village, township clerk or committeeman of the respective township in which he resides.

Wool blankets are needed for infantile paralysis victims

There is a serious need for old wool blankets or pieces of blankets at the hospitals. The blankets are cut up and used for compresses for the Kenney treatment of infantile paralysis. Cotton blankets cannot be used because they retain too much moisture. This is a community project and Arlington Heights has never failed to respond when called upon for help. Mrs. John Peroutka has been appointed chairman of the committee in charge of collecting wool blankets and any one having blankets to give can get in touch with her by calling Arlington Heights 1358-R. Please do not delay as the need is urgent.

Truck drivers to be out of luck after Oct. 1st

E. H. Malzahm, chairman of Arlington Heights Ration Board says that there will be great hue and cry after October 1st on the part of truckers who will not have their gas stamps. Repeated notices have been published in Paddock Publications, but very few applications have been filed.

Present stamps expire September 30 and can not be used in the purchase of gas after that date. Applicants must bring their ODT certificates with them.

Joe Ketterman dies in Washington

Joseph Ketterman, long a resident of Palatine and Arlington Heights, died last week at Olalla, Wash. Joe had been sick for some time, being overcome by poison gas in a Washington shipyard accident more than a year ago. He never completely recovered from this, also incurring arthritis in recent months.

Joe will be remembered by Palatine residents as one time working at the A & P food store and being quite active in the Epworth league of the Methodist church. He also built a trailer and operated a traveling farm store, covering much of the rural territory in this area. For several years prior to moving to Washington he operated a sheet metal business at Barrington.

Services were held Saturday at Olalla. Joe was 32 years old, and leaves his wife, Louise, and two children, Edith Louise and Elizabeth Grace. His mother, Mrs. Louella Ketterman, had been living with them for some time before Joe's death. Also surviving are three brothers, Paul, of Barrington; James, in the Army, and Edwin, Jr., of Washington Park.

Flying field needed when flyers return

Local boys who have been flying for Uncle Sam are not going to be content to just drive an automobile. That is what Virgil Horath told members of the Arlington Heights Lions Club at its last meeting. Mr. Horath stated that the airport now used by the navy south of town would probably be abandoned and it is none too early to consider its acquirement as one of the post-war jobs for the community.

Lion Horath also has some other ideas on post-war planning. He told the Lions that active support should be given to the post-war program of the Illinois Department of Conservation, which calls for the expenditure of $200,000 in every county in the state to be used in the construction of lakes, reforestation projects and game management (public hunting and fishing grounds).

Horath said, "With the expenditure of a little money, many ponds and small lakes in this area could be made good game areas for sportsmen."

A splendid dinner was enjoyed by all Lions present. Guests included Cecil McWharter, M. F. Egdorf, principal of the local high school, and Professor E. T. McSwain of Northwestern University.

After dinner a brief business session was conducted by Lion President Virgil Horath. Lion Prellberg announced that Gordon Brandt of Chicago, will talk on the history of Japan and its relationship to the present conflict at the next meeting October 3.

Goldthwaite joins elementary school board

At a meeting of the board of education of district No. 25, Arlington Heights, held September 26, Albert E. Goldthwaite was appointed a member of the board. This appointment fills a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Harold S. Ratliff, who is now in the Navy.

Mr. Ratliff was elected to the board of education in April, 1943. Members of the board of education have expressed their deep appreciation for the services rendered by Mr. Ratliff. He has been missed by his associates on the board.

Mr. Goldthwaite lives at 500 E. Park and has a son in the South school and a daughter in the North school. He has been active in civic affairs and is now president of the Scarsdale Improvement association.

Pilot Bob Haake reported missing in flight

First Lieut Robert W. Haake, of the Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haake, 407 S. Ioka, Mt. Prospect, has been reported missing in flight in the Asiatic area since September 17. His wife and family hold out the greatest hope for his safe return, especially since the receipt of a letter written by their son September 14 in which he told of his assignment to the search and rescue squadron in that area and the method used to rescue missing fliers.

First news of Lt. Haake's disappearance was received by his wife, the former Louise Williams of Trenton, Texas, whom he married April 26, 1943, and who has been residing with her parents. She forwarded the sad news to her husband's parents Sunday.

Lt. Haake left the University of Illinois to enter the service January 26, 1942, received his commission at Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas, the following November and was then assigned to the Ferry Command, reporting at Dallas, Texas. Later he was transferred to the Air Transport Command and in June of this year was sent overseas to India, where he flew cargo ships "over the hump", to China. A few weeks ago, at his own request, he was transferred to a B-25 and the Search and Rescue Squadron.

Possibilities for his rescue seem not to be impossible after reading the last letter written by him to his parents, who at the request of the Herald, have consented to its publication so that their son's many friends and former classmates at Arlington Heights high school may have similar hopes. The letter reads in part:

"A native runner brought a message to one of the Jungle Outposts, telling us of a Fighter pilot in a native village. This boy had walked, through dense damp jungle for twenty days, eating bamboo shoots and insects. He came to a native village burning with malaria with badly ulcerated legs (from viscious leeches that covered his body) and starving to death. The natives did their best for him (they get paid by Uncle Sam for their trouble) but, he could not have survived on the natives' diet, and he needed medical attention. We located the village and dropped a doctor and another man by parachute with supplies. They then got the flyer down to a river and began paddling out in a rubber life raft. We made a daily check of their progress, and when in need of anything we dropped it to them. By this time we had another expedition going up the river to them in a power boat. The two parties met, the sick boy was taken into the boat and within 48 hours of our discovery of his position he was resting comfortably in a hospital.

"Rescue work is the primary purpose of our outfit, but we also spend hours searching jungles and mountains for wrecked planes and men down.

"Dad, I know you would like the opportunity to be in a deal like this. In a way it is a real education. It is of such happening that lives are moulded. This life offers sufficient time for thought and observation and then to, our life is not a completely unhappy one. One learns of real appreciation of comradeship and trust in a friend. I am probably getting wiser in the ways and vicissitudes of life daily. We take pleasures in simple things—the antics of our pet monkey amuse us, we learn and many times teach others in our bull sessions, and many things, little things like a cold shower, or a bottle of beer (always warm) that we always took for granted are now big events and almost luxuries to us. I hope when this war is ended I will be a better and bigger man for it all. The ways of the Lord are indeed strange to man in his foolish pride and ambition."

From the explanation of Lt. Haake's work the family knows that everything is being done to rescue him as he has been doing for his buddies.

Blue point tokens 'no good' after Saturday

Blue tokens expire this Saturday, housewives are reminded. The tokens, representing 1 point each, can be used this week only in multiples of ten for processed foods. All processed food point values have been set at multiples of ten, thus eliminating the necessity of the tokens.

The blue stamps, worth ten points each, are still valid, but the tokens will disappear from circulation Saturday night.

Housewives are also warned that spare stamp 37, used to acquire up to 20 pounds of sugar for canning (if you can find the sugar), expires October 31. No permits for canning sugar for spare stamp 37 will be granted after that date.

Arlington community nurse resigns

The resignation of Mrs. Clara Lund, Arlington Heights Community nurse, has been accepted by the C. T. I. and becomes effective October 1. She returns to her old position in the Elgin City Schools, a position that does not require as much effort, time and responsibility as the Arlington position.

"I believe," stated Mrs. Lund Wednesday, "that Arlington Heights has as fine a health program as any community northwest of Chicago. I have enjoyed the work here, have made many friends and have had the best of cooperation from the town, the health committee and the school personnel."

Mrs. Lund was very frank to the Herald over the reason for leaving. The increasing population of the community, the greater number of pupils in the high school and the health program that has become larger every year, has become too much for her health. Her vacation last summer was entirely spent in recovering the strength that she had lost the preceding months.

Announcement of Mrs. Lund's successor will be made in next week's issue of this paper. The health committee regret her departure, but has been assured by the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute that a competent nurse will be found to properly carry on the work.

Newspapers in place of hand grenades

Mayor Goedke says that the war would end a lot sooner if our forces had Curley Rodewald, the newsdealer, to throw hand grenades at the enemy. Since Curly has had to take over some of his paper routes he has acquired a professional touch to the throwing of the papers to the 'exact spot' on the porches of his customers. When the reporter interviewed Curley, he was told "my customers do not do any shooting at me."

No more hospital charge against townships

Taxpayers of the country towns have been saved thousands of dollars. This is a result of a resolution introduced by County Commissioner Busse and seconded by Commissioner John Mackler at a meeting of the county board held on September 20, which provided that all non-pauper patients who have not sufficient money or relatives to pay for their care in the county hospital be paid by the county and not by the respective townships in which they reside.

In the past the county board has been paying the expense of non-pauper patients of the city of Chicago in the township of Cicero but not for the other townships of the country towns.

As a result of the passage of this resolution, in the future, all expenses on non-pauper cases sent to the county hospital where the individual does not have sufficient money or relatives to pay, the charges will be borne by the county board.

The organization of township supervisors have been opposing the charges that have been made against them for hospital patients and have refused to honor bills that have been presented to them for that purpose.

Seek public sentiment to save golf course

Harold and Stella Willson, owners of the Mt. Prospect Country club are this week making a direct appeal to public sentiment in Mt. Prospect, which if successful, will save the golf course. The village board has denied the Willsons the right to disconnect from the incorporated area the golf course, known on subdivision plats as Lot 18.

The plan of Mr. Willson allows the club house proper to remain within the village where it will be subject to all taxes and special assessments.

Mr. Willson recognizes that right now is a golden opportunity for the development of real estate but he prefers to have the golf club property remain in its present use, which he says cannot be done if it is to be subject to taxes and future special assessments that are assessed on property within a village.

If the property has to remain in the village, it would be good business sense to subdivide and be ready for the building boom that will start at the end of the war.

Mr. Willson makes it plain that if Mt. Prospect people want to retain the golf course, they should bring influence to bear upon the village board which on the advice of its attorney has denied such action.

The statement of Mr. and Mrs. Willson appears this week in the Mt. Prospect Herald edition.

PTA membership drive starts next Monday

On Friday of this week children of the Arlington Heights schools will carry form letters and copies of this year's PTA program home to parents. Next week will be devoted to contacting parents to acquaint them with the reasons why their membership in PTA is important.

A small folder put out by this great organization to which 3,054,950 parents and teachers in the United States belong, 208,250 of them residents of Illinois, says:

You are cordially invited to join this great civilian army of men and women enlisted in volunteer service to children and youth. There is a place for you in the active and growing National Congress of Parents and Teachers. Your understanding, effort, influence, and ability are needed to help carry forward a vital program of projects and activities.

It lists ten good reasons for joining the PTA. 1. In time of war, so many old-time basic values are in danger of being forgotten that it takes everything that every one of us can do to prevent our overlooking them. The PTA stands guard over just such values.

2. Children's needs won't wait. It doesn't take long to grow up. And growing up under unwholesome or undesirable conditions means tragedy to the child and loss to the nation. The PTA helps to prevent both.

3. Many heads are better than one. In the Parent-Teacher Association all members pool their thinking in a common cause.

4. We must do something about the increase in juvenile delinquency, the day care of war workers' children, and more than a dozen other pressing problems. Through the PTA you can contribute your share in these very necessary activities.

5. We want our boys and girls to grow into responsible adults. It's a good idea to let them see responsible adults from their own homes working together in the PTA. Remember that it is far easier to teach by example than by precept.

6. This world needs to learn exactly what democracy is all about, needs to see it in action at close range. Where better than in the PTA, one of the most democratic organizations in America?

7. We know more about training children than we used to, and it makes a difference in our way of handling them. The PTA brings you the latest and best information on child training.

8. We need a balance wheel for our war activities, some means of keeping our sense of proportion when the all-out war effort seems to obscure everything else. The PTA is grand at helping its members to put first things first.

9. We want to do something practical to help win this war, so that we can go back to normal living. Nothing in the world is more essential than working for the welfare of childhood and youth, so that when the war is won we shall have a fine sturdy generation to carry on.

10. Most of us have a more or less urgent desire to do something to make the world a little bit better. In the PTA we begin to feel that we can do something in this direction. Making the world better by rearing a better generation of children is the goal of the PTA.

The Arlington Heights PTA meets every third Tuesday in each school month of the year. The fee is fifty cents per parent for the year. In school rooms here there are fishermen posters. For each father who attends a meeting each child of his will be gratified by seeing a fish caught on the poster. His mother will make a star in the sky.

This reporter can think of no more compelling duty, either in peace time or during war time, than that of supporting an organization whose only concern is your child. Besides, ladies and gentlemen, the programs are GOOD, all of them, and there's a nice social hour with coffee and cake after each meeting.

8 women needed as girl scout adult leaders

More than eight adult leaders are needed this year to carry on the greatly expanded Girl Scout program in Arlington Heights, according to Mrs. Herman J. Carr, Organization Chairman on the G. S. Council.

Girl Scout national membership has been boosted from 671,000 at the time of Pearl Harbor to more than a million today. Interest in Scouting in Arlington Heights has brought local membership in the organization up to 175 Girl Scouts and Brownies. Many more women are needed to help the girls continue their Scout training.

Mrs. Frances Brooks, former executive secretary of Girl Scouts in Columbus, Ohio, is the new training chairman on the Arlington Heights Girl Scout Council.

Volunteers will be given the training necessary to Girl Scout leadership. Any woman over 21, with a liking for youngsters, a strong belief in democracy and two or three hours a week to give to activities outside of her home is eligible to serve as a troop leader.

"Women who have worked in Girl Scouting through the war years have found great satisfaction in doing their share on the 'youth front'" "Those who enter Scouting now, when all of the plans and possibilities for post-war activities are being explored, will find the chances for important national service even greater. The end of the war won't see the end of the problems which have put young people into the headlines too often."

As the emergency war services relax, many women who have received valuable training and experience, will have time to turn around and look for opportunities for putting their energy and skill to good use. "Who needs them more than the girls who will be tomorrow's citizens?"

"But girls can't wait to grow up until their mothers, sisters, aunts and friends have more time for them. They need the fun, guidance and opportunities for service in Scouting now—today. Scouting has helped many a girl weather the difficulties of wartime; it can be an even greater force in helping girls through the changes that will come with post-war readjustments. Women who enlist in Girl Scouting now will have the thrill and satisfaction of taking an active part in the solving of many of our country's post-war problems.

A special effort will be made to enroll at least eight women as leaders and assistant leaders of Girl Scout troops. All women who are interested in learning more about opportunities for service in Girl Scouting please call Mrs. Carr Arlington Heights 1864.

At the annual meeting of the Girl Scout Association Monday, Sept. 25, the following council members were elected:

Commissioner, Mrs. Alva H. Meyer.

Deputy Commissioner, Rev. Wm. F. Kamphenkel.

Secretary, to be announced later.

Treasurer, Mrs. Rex C. Volz.

Registrar, Mrs. E. H. Niemeyer.

Program Chairman, Mrs. H. J. Gregg.

Organization Chairman, Mrs. Frances Brooks.

Public Relations Chairman, Mrs. A. M. Neville.

Camp Chairman, Mrs. Geo. A. Glow.

Camp Co-chairman, Mrs. Jarvis.

Finance Chairman, Mr. Kenneth W. Kennedy.

The Local Scout organization wishes to express its appreciation to Rev. Kamphenkel, Mrs. Wm. C. Lathen, Mr. Bathje, Mrs. Wm. Walton and Mrs. J. C. Jones for the splendid work which they did on the Council last year.

How high is your blood pressure?

by C. W. LUSSMAN of Sieburg Pharmacy

Years ago it was considered rather impertinent to ask anyone but a person very close to you a specific question about the condition of his or her health.

In these days of turmoil, strife and anxiety the question heading this message, if sincerely asked, may set in motion a process that will be the means of prolonging life, for many people have high blood pressure and are unaware of the fact.

The process will include a visit to a physician and close adherence to his advice.

All students in 5th and 6th grades must be examined

Superintendent R. E. Clabaugh of the Arlington Public Schools and M. F. Ingdorf—Principal of the Arlington Heights Township High School, have completed plans for the physical examination of all students in the fith and ninth grades of the respective schools.

A letter from the school, together with a form to be used by the Doctor to record the results of his examination will be given to each student. It is urged that parents request the Doctor to make all the examinations listed on the form. As soon as the student has had the examination, the form should be returned to the school office. The results will then be posted on a permanent record card. The results of the examination will become a part of the permanent record of each student. In the event a student transfers to another school, this record will be forwarded to the new school.

Since there is a shortage of doctors and those available do have heavy schedules, it is requested that parents contact their family physician immediately for an appointment.

Fifth grade students should have their examinations completed by November 1st and 9th Grade Students by December 1st. Parents are urged not to wait until the last week to have the examinations made.

Musicians play for sailors at Great Lakes

On Sunday, September 24, William Miller's popular dance orchestra was invited to entertain wounded evacuated sailors at the Great Lakes Naval hospital. For several hours the band entertained the sailors with dance numbers and noveltiies, and Diane Lewinski and Pearl Miller, vocalists, with the orchestra, sang a number of songs. Their entertainment was greatly appreciated and all were invited to make a return trip. Members of the orchestra who are also high school bandsmen are: William Miller, Dick Leimetter, Gordon Allison, Brian Crumlish and Don Hotz. Al and Gene Stroker also play with this group.

This orchestra will play for the kick-off dance Saturday night, September 30, at 8:30 at the high school. The dance is given each year after the first home football game and is sponsored by the band.

Puffer to appear at White House

Noble J. Puffer, Cook county superintendent of schools was today notifed that he had been selected by the national education association to join a group of nationally recognized educators in a conference on rural education meeting at the White house, October third through October fifth.

The purpose of the conference is to provide a means for the exchange of ideas on the purposes, objectives, program, organization, support and expansion of public schools in the rural areas of the United States.

Each of the educators invited to this conference is to serve on a special committee studying a phase of rural education. Mr. Puffer will serve on the committee studying: "The organization and administration of rural education." The members of this committee will study the present status of rural schools, the reorganization of local school units, administrative services and personnel, boards of education and pupil transportation.

The conference will open with a social hour on the lawn of the White house, Wednesday afternoon, October 4.

Dental school survey completed this week

Dental surveys of all elementary school pupils were completed this week.

The four local dentists Dr. Bauman, Dr. Bostian, Dr. Dunn and Dr. Payne have generously given time from their busy offices to do these surveys in the schools. Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Carroll again assisted the dentists.

Each year more children are being educated in the habit of getting their yearly dental check-ups during the summer when dental appointments need not be crowded in after school hours.

This also eliminates some of the work of the survey. This year with a school enrollment of 1083 only 620 pupils were enrolled in the survey.

Our records indicate that already about 50% of all the elementary school children's teeth have been checked and corrected since the close of school in May. This gives our dental program for this year a splendid beginning.

Following this survey, cards indicating the findings will be sent home with the pupils, urging the parents to have their defects corrected as soon as possible.

St. James school news

Report cards will be issued to the students of the St. James school in Arlington Heights on Monday of next week.

Dental O. K.'s are now being obtained by the students in the various classes and each room is trying to outdo the other in the number obtained. Thus far Room 6 has 21 and Room 5 has 2.

Issues of The Catholic Miss and The Catholic Boy will be distributed next week.

There will be a paper sale from Friday of this week until Tuesday of next week, and it's room versus room. Three to four tons is the goal the students hope to reach, and the proceeds from this sale will be used to furnish encyclopedias for different rooms.

The first pack meeting of the new Arlington Heights cub year got under way last Friday at the North school auditorium. This meeting was held with Mr. M. W. Prellberg and Mr. Chas. Schumacher officiating. New members were installed with appropriate ceremonies and a brief resume of the projects for the coming year was made by Mr. Cochrane. He explained that there were to be prizes given nearly every month and it would be best for the boys to bring their achievements to the pack meetings.

There was an urgent plea made by Mr. Schumacher for Den Dads. Boys between the ages of 9 to 12 are eligible for membership and there are some boys that are without a leader. Dads of boys between these ages are urged to get in this very interesting work and if you will call either Mr. Schumacher or Mr. Prellberg arrangements will be made.

After the business session the boys enjoyed some movies that were shown by the Bowman dairy company. The boys and their parents enjoyed these movies as they were funny as well as educational.

The project for this month is to whittle something. If you missed this pack meeting see your Den dad or call the Cub master and he will give you instructions on this month's project.

Will welcome Heights servicemen in San Diego

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Helfers, formerly of Arlington Heights, have an "open door" policy to all Arlington servicemen stopping in San Diego. The following letter, accompanying a subscription renewal, tells of the Helfers' new home in San Diego, Calif.

"Since leaving Arlington Heights in 1942 your paper has been a wonderful means of keeping in touch with our dear friends and Arlington Heights will always be home.

"We are gradually becoming acquainted with our new surroundings. San Diego is not the same it was before the war. It has suddenly become the home for thousands of service men and women as well as hundreds of new citizens. To immediately find housing and other accommodations for all newcomers is a huge task for any community.

"We were fortunate to be able to secure a lovely home and bid a hearty welcome to all who come to San Diego. Especially do we say welcome to the service men from Arlington Heights. Our door will be open to them at any time.

"How soon we will join the Californians in boosting for their state remains to be seen. A recent article appearing in one of the daily papers refers to the state of California as, 'being air-conditioned.'"

Their address is: B. F. Helfers, 4568 Shirley Ann Pl., San Diego, Calif.

Maximum benefits ranging from $15 to $22 a week could be paid for periods ranging from 14 to 24 weeks. A pooling arrangement has been devised between States whereby an employee who migrates from one state to another, will not lose the rights and benefits which he has accumulated.

How high is your blood pressure?

by C. W. LUSSMAN of Sieburg Pharmacy

Years ago it was considered rather impertinent to ask anyone but a person very close to you a specific question about the condition of his or her health.

In these days of turmoil, strife and anxiety the question heading this message, if sincerely asked, may set in motion a process that will be the means of prolonging life, for many people have high blood pressure and are unaware of the fact.

The process will include a visit to a physician and close adherence to his advice.

All students in 5th and 6th grades must be examined

Superintendent R. E. Clabaugh of the Arlington Public Schools and M. F. Edgdorf—Principal of the Arlington Heights Township High School, have completed plans for the physical examination of all students in the fifth and ninth grades of the respective schools.

A letter from the school, together with a form to be used by the Doctor to record the results of his examination will be given to each student. It is urged that parents request the Doctor to make all the examinations listed on the form. As soon as the student has had the examination, the form should be returned to the school office. The results will then be posted on a permanent record card. The results of the examination will become a part of the permanent record of each student. In the event a student transfers to another school, this record will be forwarded to the new school.

Since there is a shortage of doctors and those available do have heavy schedules, it is requested that parents contact their family physician immediately for an appointment.

Fifth grade students should have their examinations completed by November 1st and 9th Grade Students by December 1st. Parents are urged not to wait until the last week to have the examinations made.

The purpose of the conference is to provide a means for the exchange of ideas on the purposes, objectives, program, organization, support and expansion of public schools in the rural areas of the United States.

Each of the educators invited to this conference is to serve on a special committee studying a phase of rural education. Mr. Puffer will serve on the committee studying: "The organization and administration of rural education." Dental school survey completed this week

Dental surveys of all elementary school pupils were completed this week.

The four local dentists Dr. Bauman, Dr. Bostian, Dr. Dunn and Dr. Payne have generously given time from their busy offices to do these surveys in the schools. Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Carroll again assisted the dentists.

Each year more children are being educated in the habit of getting their yearly dental check-ups during the summer when dental appointments need not be crowded in after school hours.

This also eliminates some of the work of the survey. This year with a school enrolment of 1083 only 620 pupils were enrolled in the survey.

Our records indicate that already about 50% of all the elementary school children's teeth have been checked and corrected since the close of school in May. This gives our dental program for this year a splendid beginning.

Following this survey, cards indicating the findings will be sent home with the pupils, urging the parents to have their defects corrected as soon as possible.

St. James school news

Report cards will be issued to the students of the St. James school in Arlington Heights on Monday of next week.

Dental O. K.'s are now being obtained by the students in the various classes and each room is trying to outdo the other in the number obtained. Thus far Room 6 has 21 and Room 5 has 2.

Issues of The Catholic Miss and The Catholic Boy will be distributed next week.

There will be a paper sale from Friday of this week until Tuesday of next week, and it's room versus room. Three to four tons is the goal the students hope to reach, and the proceeds from this sale will be used to furnish encyclopedias for different rooms.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Reality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 24.

The Golden Text was, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning" (James 1: 17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counselior? . . . For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory forever" (Romans 11: 33, 34, 36).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. From this it follows that nothing possesses reality nor existence except the divine Mind and His ideas . . . He is all-inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as infinite Spirit or Mind. Hence all is Spirit and spiritual" (p. 331).

World Communion Sunday

In all quarters of the Globe man is set against man. War is a divisive force and it thrives on these divisions that keep men apart. Without these divisions no ruler or governor could place an army into the field and keep it there. It is not the purpose of the writer to pass judgment upon our present involvement, we only recognize the facts for what they are.

But nations and men find that through a share experience they are not divided but united into a fellowship. WORLD-WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY, October 1, is an outgrowth of the knowledge that there is a Unity that binds men that rises above national or geographical divisions. Christian Leaders about the World have agreed upon the first Sunday of October as the day for a world-wide observance of the LORD'S SUPPER. So in all lands and in every part of the world Christians will gather to share in that unbroken and unbreakable fellowship of gathering at the Lord's Table for the Sacrament of the supper instituted by the Lord himself.

Especially deep to the men and women of the armed forces on land or sea will be this day when they come to share a fellowship with their loved ones at home. This mystical bond is the strongest cord in all the world. War sufferers and refugees will be in communion with their loved ones through this sacramental tie. As the Sun is said never to set upon the British Empire, the Sun will never set upon some spot of the Globe where either minister or priest will not be calling people to confession and prayer before the Altar of God in the blessed memory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Go to the Church of your choosing this Sunday. Take the blessed elements to your solace and do not break the bond your loved one away from home is depending upon you to keep in the observation of this Holy Service. At the Lord's Table we are united in spirit though divided by other means. KEEP THE FAITH OF A LOVED ONE, MEET HIM IN SPIRIT AT THE LORD'S TABLE.

Annual mission festival at St. Peter

St. Peter Lutheran church will observe its annual Mission Sunday, October 1, the Rev. L. V. Stephan announced. Special speakers have been engaged to preach in the three services. The Rev. G. A. Roehrs, city missionary of Chicago, will deliver the sermons in the 9:30 and 11:00 a. m. services while the Rev. A. H. Werfelmann, first vice president of this district and pastor of St. John's church, Elgin, will deliver the address in the evening service at 7:30 p. m.

It is a custom of long standing in the Lutheran church to hold a Mission festival of this type in which the work of missions thruout the world is given special attention and funds are gathered to carry on this work. Pamphlets describing the far-flung mission fields of the Lutheran church have been distributed at the services the past five Sundays and the importance of the work has been emphasized in the sermons. Overflow crowds are anticipated in the services next Sunday.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Reality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 24.

The Golden Text was, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning" (James 1: 17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? . . . For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory forever" (Romans 11: 33, 34, 36).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. From this it follows that nothing possesses reality nor existence except the divine Mind and His ideas . . . He is all-inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as infinite Spirit or Mind. Hence all is Spirit and spiritual" (p. 331).

World Communion Sunday

In all quarters of the Globe man is set against man. War is a divisive force and it thrives on these divisions that keep men apart. Without these divisions no ruler or governor could place an army into the field and keep it there. It is not the purpose of the writer to pass judgment upon our present involvement, we only recognize the facts for what they are.

But nations and men find that through a share experience they are not divided but united into a fellowship. WORLD-WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY, October 1, is an outgrowth of the knowledge that there is a Unity that binds men that rises above national or geographical divisions. Christian Leaders about the World have agreed upon the first Sunday of October as the day for a world-wide observance of the LORD'S SUPPER. So in all lands and in every part of the world Christians will gather to share in that unbroken and unbreakable fellowship of gathering at the Lord's Table for the Sacrament of the supper instituted by the Lord himself.

Especially deep to the men and women of the armed forces on land or sea will be this day when they come to share a fellowship with their loved ones at home. This mystical bond is the strongest cord in all the world. War sufferers and refugees will be in communion with their loved ones through this sacramental tie. As the Sun is said never to set upon the British Empire, the Sun will never set upon some spot of the Globe where either minister or priest will not be calling people to confession and prayer before the Altar of God in the blessed memory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Go to the Church of your choosing this Sunday. Take the blessed elements to your solace and do not break the bond your loved one away from home is depending upon you to keep in the observation of this Holy Service. At the Lord's Table we are united in spirit though divided by other means. KEEP THE FAITH OF A LOVED ONE, MEET HIM IN SPIRIT AT THE LORD'S TABLE.

Just Around the Corner

By Eleanor Milstead

Early Monday morning Mrs. John Berchtold called to tell me that her husband had just passed away. I left the telephone to look at the hooked rug I own that he had made and at the wood carving his wife had given me several months ago — both with the strength and beauty of their creator's mind and poetic hands recalling to me that although Mr. Berchtold is gone, he has left in his own home and many others in village tangible reminders of his character.

One day a few weeks ago I had stopped to see him. He was sitting in the sun on a bench outside the summer house on Wing street. I asked him how he felt and he said, his sweet smile belying his pain, and almost objectively, that his hand hurt, and that he could not retain his food. It was the nearest I had ever heard him come to a complaint. Mrs. A. D. Hines told me late this summer that Mr. Berchtold had mentioned being ready to go now—now that the leaves were already beginning to fall. He would welcome death's release. The dear old man. I mourn our loss but am glad for his going. He was such a good man, and had suffered much.

At about 10 o'clock the telephone rang again and Edith Atkinson told me of the death on August 30 of the Ed Dearie's oldest son, Eddie, killed in action.

Here was no release—no feeling anywhere to cling to that after all, it was best that way. Here was another of war's murders. I wanted to go to see the Dearies, to say something comforting. I couldn't. Finally I wrote a stilted little sympathy note. I was thinking of brave Mrs. Dearie, keeping busy, keeping her chin up, holding on to courage, saying of her younger son, Wilbie, "He's having good care in the hospital. He'll be home soon."

I was thinking of kind Mr. Dearie who loves all his children so. I was thinking of the pretty Dearie girls and the smallest son whose biggest brother would never come home. And all I could say in the letter was "God bless you all and keep you in your sorrow." You see, the deep close feelings in your heart you can not really speak about. Of this I am sure—no death that touches any of us can help but move us to try to be better, to do more good, to be true to memories of kindness and faith and charity.

The Methodist ladies' husbands are eating at home again after having their domestic tranquility uprooted and suspended by last week's successful Antique and Hobby show.

Our son's annual October illness has doubly distressing angles this year since mama is of no help whatever assisting him with his arithmetic. How can I teach him to subtract nine from fourteen without counting on his fingers when that's what I do? If you ever contemplate having a child of yours skip a grade or two think of me and my resultant inadequacies.

Mothers' club smorgasbord this Friday

The Mothers club of the St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will have a smorgasbord Friday, September 29, in the Lutheran school basement beginning at 5:30 o'clock. Tickets are 55c for adults and 30c for children under 10 years of age.

Two-thousand visitors attend hobby show

Nearly two thousand visitors attended Antique and Hobby show, held in the Methodist and St. John churches on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last week in Arlington Heights.

They came from all over, from the North Shore, from the Western suburbs, from Wisconsin, Indiana, from Morgan Park and most other points that might be mentioned in the area. They came to browse and buy, and the 12 dealers in antiques found business good.

Local people, attending their first antique show, looked with surprise at grandmothers spice chest (long relegated to their attics), which brought a good price and which was purchased by some ardent collector to be used with pine accessories in a kitchen, or which will repose on the desk as a receptacle for miscellaneous articles.

They found the old family ironstone plates, iron trivots, Scotch kettles, and all sorts of pressed glass, the old oil lamps, and many other articles refreshed and awaiting an eager buyer.

The hobbies and collections on the first floor attracted as much attention as did the antiques. Outstanding among them was the Hummel figure collection, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Otzen. The figures are the creation of Berta Hummel, a nun in Germany. The entire collection of the Otzen's was purchased in Germany and the beauty and detail of each one is beyond description.

The many other exhibits were well displayed, and appreciated by the host of visitors. They included collections of all kinds, and handicrafts and sport exhibits.

The historical exhibit attracted its share of attention, with many articles of the early days of the village on display.

The table settings and quilt exhibit in the St. John's church was attractively arranged, and displayed some of the finest china it is possible to buy.

Meals were served cafeteria style in the dining rooms downstairs, and were well attended.

The show was probably the largest affair ever undertaken by an organization in Arlington and met with such complete success that plans are already underway for a repeat show next fall. Chairmen of committees have been appointed, dealers have already signed up and tentative dates in September have been considered.

The committee in charge was grateful to all who participated either by graciously loaning an exhibit or by attending the show.

Mrs. Marvin Prellberg was general chairman of the affair, Mrs. Elmer Carneross co-chairman. Mrs. R. E. Atkinson was chairman of dealers and advertising, Mrs. E. H. Heller co-chairman.

Mrs. William Brown, chairman of table settings; Mrs. Ira Parker, chairman of quilts; Mrs. Milo Vondracek, co-chairman; B. T. Best, chairman of historical exhibit; Mrs. Merwyn Reis, chairman of food committee; Mrs. Clifford Crane, co-chairman; Mrs. Donald Stoockdale, chairman of hobbies and collections; Mrs. Gerald Morrissey, co-chairman and Mrs. Kenneth Milstead, chairman of resale booth.

The population of the country continues to grow. Naturally the number of potential voters continues to grow each year. The Census Bureau figures that in 1944, there will be 88,457,000 persons in the United States over 21 years of age. About 41 million voted in 1940.

Vegetables

Apples, a favorite fruit now in good supply throughout the Mid west, will account for about a fifth of the nation's total fresh fruit supply this year, according to the war food administration. Although the apple harvest is only slightly above the average, it's expected to total around 38 per cent more than the small yield last year. Homemakers will welcome the fall harvest of apples because this fruit can be used in so many ways, served raw, used for making apple butter, canned juice, and sauce, and any number of cooked desserts.

Other fruits that can be used to add interest to menu plans at this time include California Tokay grapes, Florida avocados, and California plums. There are moderate supplies of Michigan peaches and pears coming in, and homemakers can preserve both these fruits for winter use. California Valencia oranges are the principal citrus fruit offered on the markets right now, and they are selling at ceiling levels. Grapefruit is in very light supply.

Autumn is here, and some of the typically fall and winter vegetables are now arriving in larger quantities—such as parsnips, sweet potatoes, rutabagas, and Acorn and Hubbard squash. Sweet potatoes have been selling at more moderate prices during the past week or two, and the other three items are quite reasonable in price. Celery is a good buy in relish vegetables, with both the bleached or goldenheart, and the green, or Pascal type, available. Supplies of head lettuce are light and prices are pretty high on this commodity. Ceiling prices also prevail on the western bunched carrots. Green peppers, eggplant, cabbage, tomatoes, and beets are all within the reach of the average homemaker's budget.

Costly cars

Automobile prices won't make the postwar buyer happy, according to M. E. Coyle, vice-president of General Motors corporation. Pointing out that labor rates paid by the industry must be passed on to the consumer, he says the industry has no objection to high wages except that they increase the selling price of products, thereby restricting sales.

Shoes

Civilians cannot hope for an early end of shoe rationing, WPB says, unless imports of hides increase or unless there is a large cutback in military orders. Hide shortages continue in spite of a large domestic kill of cows and calves. Heavy civilian and military consumption and decreased imports account for the shortages.

LIFE WITH MOTHER

Dear Mary:

The little cup and saucer from the doll's set which I purchased at the Antique and Hobby show in Arlington Heights last Wednesday is now sitting on the second shelf of my curio cabinet among my other mementos. When the children saw me place it there, they were delighted and immediately clamored for "its story," so I told them:

"This is to remind me of a happy day spent with your Aunt Mary in Arlington Heights. I went out there on the train."

"What train?"

"Our own train, the Northwestern."

"Oh."

"She met me at the station."

"What station?"

"The station in Arlington Heights, and she had a friend in the car with her of whom I had heard a great deal and . . ."

"What kind of a friend?"

"A lady friend."

"Oh!"

"This lady's name was Mrs. Reinshagen. Aunt Mary calls her Mabel and she told me that I might call her that too. I was very glad because I liked her very much right away."

"Why?"

"Well because she was so friendly and then we went . . ."

"Does Mrs. Rain . . . Does Mabel have any babies?"

"No, her babies are quite grown up now, and her name is Mrs. Reinshagen, you musn't call big people by their first names, only me, your mother, and don't ask me why because you're too little to understand now, when you're old enough, I'll explain it to you, her oldest son is a soldier and he's over in New Guinea where cousin Evangeline is. We're going to write them and tell them to be on the lookout for each other, but where was I?"

"You were in Arlington Heights."

"Oh yes! and then Aunt Mary drove us to the Methodist church where they were having an Antique and Hobby show."

"Were there horses? Was it movies or real on a stage?"

"There weren't any horses or movies or a stage. It was a great big room filled with antiques. Antiques are things that are very old."

"Like our things here?"

"No, our things aren't old enough, you children have just made them look old before they're really old, but dear me, you keep interrupting so, I'll never get this story told."

"You were in a big room filled with Antics."

"Antiques, Davy, but before we went in to see the Antiques, we had a delicious lunch served by the ladies of this church."

"Was there ice cream?"

"Not ice cream but something I like better, home made pie, and then we went up to see the Antiques and if you wanted to you could buy them, so I bought this little cup and saucer and Aunt Mary bought a steeple clock."

"Oh boy! like the one in the Angel Guardian church?"

"Heavens no! it was a little one about the size of that one on the mantle, it's called a Steeple Clock because it has two little points on top of it that look like steeples."

"Oh!"

"And then I met another friend of Aunt Mary's whom I had been looking forward to knowing, Mrs. Milstead, I liked her very much too, her first name is Eleanor just like mine except that hers doesn't have an e on the end of it like mine does. I always think it's fun to meet someone who has the same name that you do, and then . . ."

"Does El, Mrs. Milstead have any babies?"

"I know she has one little boy named Ken, but I don't know of any others."

"How old is he?"

"I don't know, we'll have to find out, and then we went into another big room to see the Hobby displays, these are things that people collect because they like them and it's fun to see how many they can get."

"What kind of things? Are they very old too?"

"These things do not have to be old but they can be, there were a great many dolls, one big doll with beautiful blond hair that was bigger than Charlie, almost."

"Why didn't you buy her for me?"

"The hobby things aren't for sale, they're just to look at."

"Where did the little girl get so many dolls?"

"I don't think they belonged to a little girl, I think they were a lady's."

"What did a grown up lady do with dolls?"

"Well when a grown up lady has dolls it's a hobby, it's, well, why do you folks collect worms and put them in that pan out in the yard?"

"We like to watch them wriggle but dolls can't wriggle!"

"Then we saw a great many buttons, there were some in a candy box that looked exactly like the bon bon candies that Nonny likes so well."

"What were they for?"

"Why, they had probably been on a dress at some time, to button it, of course."

"Why doesn't the lady put them on another dress?"

"Well, they're so pretty, I guess she'd rather look at them in the box."

"Oh!"

"And then Aunt Mary had to go home so that she could get Edward at his school, so she took me over to the station again, and you know the rest of the story because Daddy brought all of you out there in the car to get me, and you know how happy and surprised I was, because I had expected only Daddy, and when I saw Nonny and cousin Barbara too, we laughed and laughed."

Really, Mary, there was only one thing wrong with that day, it went too fast, I wish too, that I could have gone home with you and seen the boys, give them my love, and thank you for the happy memory that shall always belong to the little cup and saucer.

As always,

Eleanore.

New cooking

Among the postwar beneficiaries of wartime developments in electronics will be the operators of lunch counters, restaurants and hotel dining-rooms. Their business of short order cookery will be greatly speeded by the use of electronic "megacycle" heat, says V. W. Sherman, a division manager of the Federal Telephone and Radio corporation.

Megacycle heating, he says, penetrates to the center of the product to be cooked or baked. It operates on ordinary lighting current and requires no more skill than a toaster or waffle iron. He estimates that a drug store lunch counter, for example, will be able to speed up the rate of handling customers by as much as 25 per cent and increase total income by as much as six per cent with megacycle heat.

Returning vets

The Department of Labor estimates that in the Pacific Coast States and also in Nevada, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Connecticut, the demobilization of men in service and in munitions industries will be equal to 40% of the total number of employed workers in 1940. That is to say that if one of these states had 1,000,000 employed workers in 1940, the number who will be demobilized from the service and from industry would be 400,000. There you have a picture of dislocation.

Admirals tour Glenview NAS

Three flying admirals and another who directs the Navy's public relations made a working inspection of the naval air station at Glenview last week. Combined, they represented more Navy rank, gold braid and decorations than has ever previously been seen at Glenview, now the headquarters of the naval air primary training command.

From Washington were Vice Admiral Aubrey W. Fitch, USN, deputy chief of naval operations for air; Rear Admiral DeWitt D. Rumsey, USN, chief of the bureau of aeronautiics, and Rear Admiral A. Stanton Merrill, USN, director of public relations, and from the NAPTC headquarters at NAS Glenview was Rear Admiral Osborne B. Hardison, USN, chief of naval air primary training.

Arriving at 10:45 the visiting admirals were met by Rear Admiral Hardison and at the NAPTC staff administration building the members of Admiral Hardison's staff were introduced. Then, guided by the air station's commanding officer, Captain George C. Montgomery, USN, and led by the automobile bearing the three-star flag of Vice Admiral Fitch, the admirals proceeded on a general tour of the station, including the barracks, recreation facilities, hangars, repair shops, ground school, ready rooms and the flight line where aviation cadets in primary training were going out on hops. Also inspected was the Carrier qualification training unit, based at NAS, Glenview, from which naval aviators operate to the USS Wolverine and USS Sable to qualify for duty aboard carriers with the fleet.

The population of the country continues to grow. Naturally the number of potential voters continues to grow each year. The Census Bureau figures that in 1944, there will be 88,457,000 persons in the United States over 21 years of age. About 41 million voted in 1940.

Vegetables

Apples, a favorite fruit now in good supply throughout the Mid west, will account for about a fifth of the nation's total fresh fruit supply this year, according to the war food administration. Although the apple harvest is only slightly above the average, it's expected to total around 38 per cent more than the small yield last year. Homemakers will welcome the fall harvest of apples because this fruit can be used in so many ways, served raw, used for making apple butter, canned juice, and sauce, and any number of cooked desserts.

Other fruits that can be used to add interest to menu plans at this time include California Tokay grapes, Florida avocados, and California plums. There are moderate supplies of Michigan peaches and pears coming in, and homemakers can preserve both these fruits for winter use. California Valencia oranges are the principal citrus fruit offered on the markets right now, and they are selling at ceiling levels. Grapefruit is in very light supply.

Autumn is here, and some of the typically fall and winter vegetables are now arriving in larger quantities—such as parsnips, sweet potatoes, rutabagas, and Acorn and Hubbard squash. Sweet potatoes have been selling at more moderate prices during the past week or two, and the other three items are quite reasonable in price. Celery is a good buy in relish vegetables, with both the bleached or goldenheart, and the green, or Pascal type, available. Supplies of head lettuce are light and prices are pretty high on this commodity. Ceiling prices also prevail on the western bunched carrots. Green peppers, eggplant, cabbage, tomatoes, and beets are all within the reach of the average homemaker's budget.

Costly cars

Automobile prices won't make the postwar buyer happy, according to M. E. Coyle, vice-president of General Motors corporation. Pointing out that labor rates paid by the industry must be passed on to the consumer, he says the industry has no objection to high wages except that they increase the selling price of products, thereby restricting sales.

Shoes

Civilians cannot hope for an early end of shoe rationing, WPB says, unless imports of hides increase or unless there is a large cutback in military orders. Hide shortages continue in spite of a large domestic kill of cows and calves. Heavy civilian and military consumption and decreased imports account for the shortages.

LIFE WITH MOTHER

Dear Mary:

The little cup and saucer from the doll's set which I purchased at the Antique and Hobby show in Arlington Heights last Wednesday is now sitting on the second shelf of my curio cabinet among my other mementos. When the children saw me place it there, they were delighted and immediately clamored for "its story," so I told them:

"This is to remind me of a happy day spent with your Aunt Mary in Arlington Heights. I went out there on the train."

"What train?"

"Our own train, the Northwestern."

"Oh."

"She met me at the station."

"What station?"

"The station in Arlington Heights, and she had a friend in the car with her of whom I had heard a great deal and . . ."

"What kind of a friend?"

"A lady friend."

"Oh!"

"This lady's name was Mrs. Reinshagen. Aunt Mary calls her Mabel and she told me that I might call her that too. I was very glad because I liked her very much right away."

"Why?"

"Well because she was so friendly and then we went . . ."

"Does Mrs. Rain . . . Does Mabel have any babies?"

"No, her babies are quite grown up now, and her name is Mrs. Reinshagen, you musn't call big people by their first names, only me, your mother, and don't ask me why because you're too little to understand now, when you're old enough, I'll explain it to you, her oldest son is a soldier and he's over in New Guinea where cousin Evangeline is. We're going to write them and tell them to be on the lookout for each other, but where was I?"

"You were in Arlington Heights."

"Oh yes! and then Aunt Mary drove us to the Methodist church where they were having an Antique and Hobby show."

"Were there horses? Was it movies or real on a stage?"

"There weren't any horses or movies or a stage. It was a great big room filled with antiques. Antiques are things that are very old."

"Like our things here?"

"No, our things aren't old enough, you children have just made them look old before they're really old, but dear me, you keep interrupting so, I'll never get this story told."

"You were in a big room filled with Antics."

"Antiques, Davy, but before we went in to see the Antiques, we had a delicious lunch served by the ladies of this church."

"Was there ice cream?"

"Not ice cream but something I like better, home made pie, and then we went up to see the Antiques and if you wanted to you could buy them, so I bought this little cup and saucer and Aunt Mary bought a steeple clock."

"Oh boy! like the one in the Angel Guardian church?"

"Heavens no! it was a little one about the size of that one on the mantle, it's called a Steeple Clock because it has two little points on top of it that look like steeples."

"Oh!"

"And then I met another friend of Aunt Mary's whom I had been looking forward to knowing, Mrs. Milstead, I liked her very much too, her first name is Eleanor just like mine except that hers doesn't have an e on the end of it like mine does. I always think it's fun to meet someone who has the same name that you do, and then . . ."

"Does El, Mrs. Milstead have any babies?"

"I know she has one little boy named Ken, but I don't know of any others."

"How old is he?"

"I don't know, we'll have to find out, and then we went into another big room to see the Hobby displays, these are things that people collect because they like them and it's fun to see how many they can get."

"What kind of things? Are they very old too?"

"These things do not have to be old but they can be, there were a great many dolls, one big doll with beautiful blond hair that was bigger than Charlie, almost."

"Why didn't you buy her for me?"

"The hobby things aren't for sale, they're just to look at."

"Where did the little girl get so many dolls?"

"I don't think they belonged to a little girl, I think they were a lady's."

"What did a grown up lady do with dolls?"

"Well when a grown up lady has dolls it's a hobby, it's, well, why do you folks collect worms and put them in that pan out in the yard?"

"We like to watch them wriggle but dolls can't wriggle!"

"Then we saw a great many buttons, there were some in a candy box that looked exactly like the bon bon candies that Nonny likes so well."

"What were they for?"

"Why, they had probably been on a dress at some time, to button it, of course."

"Why doesn't the lady put them on another dress?"

"Well, they're so pretty, I guess she'd rather look at them in the box."

"Oh!"

"And then Aunt Mary had to go home so that she could get Edward at his school, so she took me over to the station again, and you know the rest of the story because Daddy brought all of you out there in the car to get me, and you know how happy and surprised I was, because I had expected only Daddy, and when I saw Nonny and cousin Barbara too, we laughed and laughed."

Really, Mary, there was only one thing wrong with that day, it went too fast, I wish too, that I could have gone home with you and seen the boys, give them my love, and thank you for the happy memory that shall always belong to the little cup and saucer.

As always,

Eleanore.

New cooking

Among the postwar beneficiaries of wartime developments in electronics will be the operators of lunch counters, restaurants and hotel dining-rooms. Their business of short order cookery will be greatly speeded by the use of electronic "megacycle" heat, says V. W. Sherman, a division manager of the Federal Telephone and Radio corporation.

Megacycle heating, he says, penetrates to the center of the product to be cooked or baked. It operates on ordinary lighting current and requires no more skill than a toaster or waffle iron. He estimates that a drug store lunch counter, for example, will be able to speed up the rate of handling customers by as much as 25 per cent and increase total income by as much as six per cent with megacycle heat.

Returning vets

The Department of Labor estimates that in the Pacific Coast States and also in Nevada, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Connecticut, the demobilization of men in service and in munitions industries will be equal to 40% of the total number of employed workers in 1940. That is to say that if one of these states had 1,000,000 employed workers in 1940, the number who will be demobilized from the service and from industry would be 400,000. There you have a picture of dislocation.

Admirals tour Glenview NAS

Three flying admirals and another who directs the Navy's public relations made a working inspection of the naval air station at Glenview last week. Combined, they represented more Navy rank, gold braid and decorations than has ever previously been seen at Glenview, now the headquarters of the naval air primary training command.

From Washington were Vice Admiral Aubrey W. Fitch, USN, deputy chief of naval operations for air; Rear Admiral DeWitt D. Ramsey, USN, chief of the bureau of aeronautiics, and Rear Admiral A. Stanton Merrill, USN, director of public relations, and from the NAPTC headquarters at NAS Glenview was Rear Admiral Osborne B. Hardison, USN, chief of naval air primary training.

Arriving at 10:45 the visiting admirals were met by Rear Admiral Hardison and at the NAPTC staff administration building the members of Admiral Hardison's staff were introduced. Then, guided by the air station's commanding officer, Captain George C. Montgomery, USN, and led by the automobile bearing the three-star flag of Vice Admiral Fitch, the admirals proceeded on a general tour of the station, including the barracks, recreation facilities, hangars, repair shops, ground school, ready rooms and the flight line where aviation cadets in primary training were going out on hops. Also inspected was the Carrier qualification training unit, based at NAS, Glenview, from which naval aviators operate to the USS Wolverine and USS Sable to qualify for duty aboard carriers with the fleet.

With Uncle Sam

Italy

Now in Italy is LeRoy Wille of Mt. Prospect. LeRoy has been in Italy about a month, formerly being stationed in Africa.

"It was quite warm when he first arrived, but has grown a little cooler since. Have changed outfits, making necessary new friends and other things. Sorry to see the other fellows go. I'm kept very busy with my work of running calculators and other machines."

Cpl. Wille entered the service October 12, 1942, with his brother. He reported to Fort McClellan, Ala., for basic training. From there he went to Ft. Washington, Md., to take advanced work in running calculator machines, a work he was engaged in civilian life at Oscar Mayer company.

LeRoy went overseas in March of last year going to Africa. In August he crossed the Mediterranean to Italy, where he is stationed with a machine recorder unit. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wille.

Kansas

Another class of aviation cadets, eager for the second phase of its instruction, has arrived at Garden City army air field, Kansas, basic flying school from various primary schools of the Army air forces training command. Donald Hanauer of Arlington Heights is included in the class.

With 60 hours of primary instruction behind them, these potential pilots have begun an intensive 10 week course of aerial and academic schooling at Garden Citv. Upon completing the course here they will continue their pilot instruction in a single or twin-engine advanced school. From the advanced course they will graduate with the silver wings of flying offiicers of the United States Army air forces.

Aviation Cadet Hanauer, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hanauer, 402 N. Douglas, Arlington Heights, attended the University of Rochester, Rochester, N. Y., during 1937-40, upon graduating from Arlington Heights high school with the class of 1937. He was a member of Chi Rho and Delta Kappa Epsilon at the University of Rochester. In civilian life he was employed by the Masonite corporation.

Cadet Hanauer completed elementary flight training at Stamford, Tex. He is married to the former Madeleine Jane McCoy of 105 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights.

Wyoming

Home for a few days furlough is Daune Folkman of Arlington Heights. Daune is stationed with the air corps at Casper, Wyoming.

"It was my sixth try for a furlough," says Daune, "with the five others all cancelled. Even this one was cancelled once, but then reinstated."

Sgt. Folkman arrived home last Saturday. He is scheduled to be back at Casper October 10.

With Uncle Sam finds son in Tulagi

With Uncle Sam has scored again. Location of another local serviceman, MOMM3c Paul Eberlein of Glenview, was accomplished through an edition of Paddock Publications.

It seems that on August 4 With Uncle Sam stated Dale Phillis of Arlington Heights was on Tulagi. We were "soundly spanked" for making such a statement, but it proved later to be true.

About a week ago relatives of Paul Eberlein received a letter, in part: "I can't say where I am located, but if you will look up the August 4 issue of Paddock's paper and see where Dale Phillis is stationed, you can find out where I am. We are both on the same island."

Enough said.

England

Pvt. Robert Ukleja of Wheeling is still in a hospital somewhere in England recovering from wounds received during the invasion of France.

Bob was with the 90th Infantry division of which a Stars and Strips reporter writes, "There are many unsung heroes in the war but it's hard to find as big a one as the 90th Infantry division. Some units of the division landed in Normandy at H hour. The entire division was in Normandy by D plus two and in the line by D plus four. The 90th had the unenviable task of cutting off the German attempt to escape from Cherbourg peninsula to the south. It was the 90th that cleared the Germans from the Foret de Mont Castre.

Bob writes that he is getting along well and is receiving good treatment in the hospital which is staffed by some nurses from the Chicago area.

Bob's address now is: Pvt. Robert Ukleja, 36712181, APO 519, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Now in England is Lt. Elvin Anderson of Arlington Heights. His address is: Lt. Elvin L. Anderson, 0-2060211, APO 559, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Georgia

From Fort Benning, Ga., comes word of Harry Kowalski of Palatine.

"I'm writing this to inform you of my new address. I am receiving the paper as I lived in Palatine a few years back and have some friends back there. I want you to know that I think highly of the paper and look forward to it.

"I'd appreciate any letter from any one interested in writing and I promise to answer them all."

His address is: Pvt. Harry Kowalski, Co. E, 5th Inf., APO 360, Fort Benning, Ga.

France

From France comes word of Gene Kelly of Palatine.

"Enclosed is a propaganda leaflet. We shoot these in shells with time fuses that burst over the enemy lines. Theoretically, this should make them see the light; but, personally, I doubt it. It has been our experience that they will give us a dose of 'counter battery.' Apparently just to show they are still in the fight.

"Lately our battery has had a ringside seat on some aerial warfare. I don't know how they stand it. Once we had a very minor dose ourselves and our nerves were unsettled for days. As much as the Germans have to face, they stubbornly hold out. You have to give Jerry credit; they are brave, or just plain bullheaded.

"Also enclosed is some so-called invasion money, put out by the Allies. Of course, we will have to redeem it sooner or later. A franc is worth about two cents. They have it tied to the English pound, which is worth four dollars and three cents. Two hundred francs to the pound. If you ever want to see something difficult you should try to do business in English money."

The propaganda leaflet, written in German, urges the German soldiers to surrender. It tells them France has fallen and that German panzer units are beaten and are retreating. It states that the fall of Brest is not far off.

His address is: 1st Lt. Francis E. Kelly, 0-1165409, APO 2, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Pvt. Ralph Busse entered the service December 10, 1943. He had his basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. He left the States sometime in July and arrived in England July

21. From there he was shipped to France where he is at the present with the armored tank division.

Pvt. Busse says their tanks are really going places over there and hopes that it won't be long now.

His address is: Pvt. Ralph A. Busse, 36773888, APO 15379, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

From France comes word of Harvey Schaefer of Arlington Heights.

"Have been laying around ever since we arrived here. We moved to better grounds, though, the other day after spending quite a time in a mud hole. Feels nice to be on green grass once more. Haven't been to town yet but hear they have beer and cognac there.

"The francs are worth two cents, so all you have to do is count your money, multiply by two, and you have it. They're playing 'By the light of the moon' on the victrola, and it really takes me back home."

His address is: Pvt. H. A. Schaefer, 36770535, APO 339, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Now in action in France is William Meyer of Arlington Heights. His address is: Sgt. Wm. F. Meyer, 36731366, APO 403, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

India

Corporal John Gieseke of Wheeling has written from India to ask that all mail be discontinued until further notice. His family is hoping that he is on his way back to the States. Cpl. Gieske has been in India for over two years and has been scheduled for a furlough for some time.

Missing

Mrs. Eva Nick of Wheeling has been informed that her son Pfc. John Nick was reported missing in action somewhere in France early in September. Pfc. Nick was with the motorized calvary and has been overseas since March and in France since late June.

Mrs. Nick has two other sons in the service as well as three sons-in-law. They are Cpl. Raymond Nick, now at Fort Benning, Ga., Pvt. Frank Nick at Camp Wallace, Texas, Wm. Lucas, Fireman 1c, % PM, San Francisco, Pvt. Harold Scharringhausen, Maryland, and John Coryell, Fireman 1c, Richmond, Va.

Oahu

From the island of Oahu comes word of Bill Schwankoff of Palatine.

"Am having it pretty easy this week so far although we have to go out on a course every day to learn to instruct other fellows. It is Jungle First-Aid and Evacuation. It is very interesting and we are also learning how to weave things out of the Hau bark from the Lauhala tree and also out of Palm Fraunds, such as litters to carry patients out of the jungle and such.

"Sure hope you don't have to get out your winter garments just yet. We sure are having some swell weather over here. It stays about the same all the time over here.

"The show of those stars was sure swell. We had Bop Hope and his troupe consisting of Frances Langford, Patty Thomas, Jerry Colonna, Tony Romano, and Barney Dean.

"The program they put on was similar to the ones that are broadcast over the radio. Bob Hope pulled plenty of jokes, Francis Langford sang quite a few songs and Patty Thomas did some tap dances and some acrobatic numbers. Jerry Colonna put on a comedy skit with Bob Hope and he also sang some songs. Tony Ramona played some numbers on his guitar and also sang some songs. Barney Dean pulled some comical jokes. All in all they put on a good show. We are to have Jack Benny and his troupe at our camp in the near future. Will tell you about his show."

His address is Cpl. Wm. J. Schwankoff, 36028059, APO 957, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Still on Oahu is Ralph Taege of Arlington Heights. Ralph is a supply sergeant with an armored group. His job is making office equipment and painting signs. Ralph has been on Oahu since December '43, and is qualified to wear two gold stars for the Marshalls and Saipan battles. His address is; Sgt. Ralph Taege, 36305855, APO 956. c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Oklahoma

Albert R. Schwankoff, 495 Slade St., Palatine, was graduated recently from the Naval air technical training center located at Norman, Okla. While at the Norman school he studied the aviation specialty field for which his recruit training aptitude tests showed he was best suited, and is now eligible for a petty officer rate.

Texas

Another link in the chain of pyramiding US air power was forged this week as the navigation school of the AAF training command awarded silver wings to a host of newly qualified combat navigators at Hondo army air field, Hondo, Tex. Included in the class was 2nd Lt. James Jirak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jirak, 1348 Kensington road, Arlington Heights. After successful completion of 18 weeks of comprehensive aerial and ground training, these young Americans from every state in the Union are ready to lead AAF bombers to the crumbling defenses of Germany and to the beleaguered outposts of Japan. Ex-farm boys, football players, students and young business men, they now have a common objective—to "carry the mail" for the world's greatest air fleet.

"We'll find the way" is the slogan of the AAFs skilled "compass men." Bombers guided by American navigators have already delivered thousands of tons of death and destruction to the enemy, and more are on the way.

Some of the new graduates were officers before entering navigation training. Those who trained as cadets received with their wings their commissions as flight officers or second lieutenants.

Each of them is an aerial expert, trained to find the target by day or by night, in fair or inclement weather. Teamwork is their forte and the Axis their common objective.

Larry Schwartz of Arlington Heights writes from Camp Maxey, Texas.

"Just received that large amount from the traveling bank. It sure makes a fellow feel good to know the folks at home still remember him.

"Have an infection in my right hand. Don't know how long I'll have to stay in the hospital, but hope it isn't too long.

"Am due for a furlough soon if I stay with the same outfit. Am afraid, though, I am in for a transfer, as I soldiered only 2½ weeks with this group. I was in the hospital for 9 weeks because of my knee."

His address is Pvt. L. J. Schwartz, Co. A. 1267 Engrs. C Bn., Camp Maxey, Texas.

New York

Home for a few days from White Plains, New York, is George Mayer of Arlington Heights. George is a printer in Uncle Sam's navy, an occupation strictly in the minority in the navy, but "right in the groove" with us. His establishment, one of four large navy printing plants, gets out bulletins, circulars and WAVE promotional literature.

George has been in service a long time, and had his last furlough the first of this year. He arrived home Sunday, and is expected back in camp October 3.

New Guinea

Now stationed in New Guinea is William Deering of Mt. Prospect, Bill has been stationed there for about two months, after serving some time in Hawaii.

"Many of the boys keep victory gardens out here, which keeps us in fresh vegetables to a certain extent. I have a flower garden, hoping to receive some flower seeds from my parents. Only vegetables here before were beans raised by the natives which were lousy.

"We had to build our own generator when we moved in for electric lights. Prior to that there were no lights. We even made washing machines out of gas tanks, and they work swell."

Bill entered service in November of '42. He received basic training at Camp Roberts, California, was then sent to Oxford university, Miss. After two months there he served at Camp Livingston, La., for six months. He left for Hawaii about Christmas of '43, where he stayed until July of this year.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Did you hear that Tom is going to be inducted into the Army next week, Judge?"

"Yes, Frank told me this morning down at the barber shop. Our town's got a lot of men in the service now, Jim. In fact, all towns have. I was just reading in the paper where there are more than 10,000,000 men away from their homes in the armed forces. And, from all reports, they're doing a grand job bringing victory closer every day.

"We folks at home have a mighty big obligation to those 10,000,000 fighting men. We've got to produce the food to keep them well fed. We've got to keep them supplied with the ammunition and equipment they need to finish their job. We've got to help the Government pay for all these supplies our men need by buying more and more War Bonds. We'll have another big chance to do that by helping to put the next War Loan drive over the top, Jim.

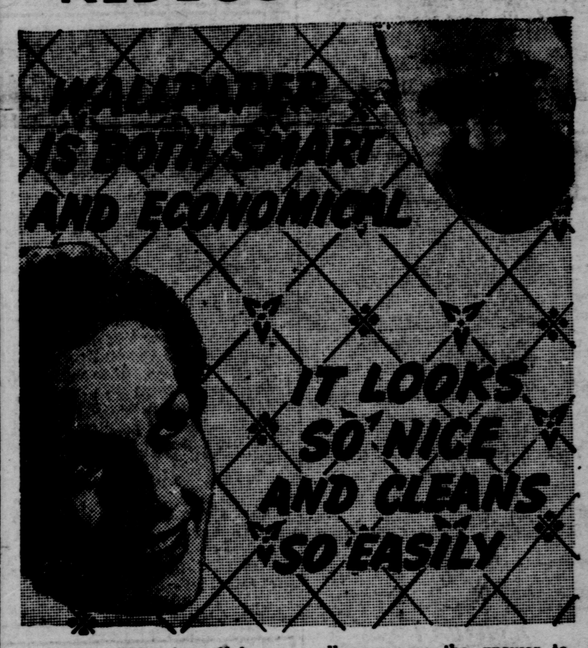

"And, in addition, we must be sure that, while they're away and can't express their opinions, we don't go voting on and deciding any things that will displease them when they come back."

Italy

Now in Italy is LeRoy Wille of Mt. Prospect. LeRoy has been in Italy about a month, formerly being stationed in Africa.

"It was quite warm when he first arrived, but has grown a little cooler since. Have changed outfits, making necessary new friends and other things. Sorry to see the other fellows go. I'm kept very busy with my work of running calculators and other machines."

Cpl. Wille entered the service October 12, 1942, with his brother. He reported to Fort McClellan, Ala., for basic training. From there he went to Ft. Washington, Md., to take advanced work in running calculator machines, a work he was engaged in civilian life at Oscar Mayer company.

LeRoy went overseas in March of last year going to Africa. In August he crossed the Mediterranean to Italy, where he is stationed with a machine recorder unit. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wille.

Kansas

Another class of aviation cadets, eager for the second phase of its instruction, has arrived at Garden City army air field, Kansas, basic flying school from various primary schools of the Army air forces training command. Donald Hanauer of Arlington Heights is included in the class.

With 60 hours of primary instruction behind them, these potential pilots have begun an intensive 10 week course of aerial and academic schooling at Garden City. Upon compleung the course here they will continue their pilot instruction in a single or twin-engine advanced school. From the advanced course they will graduate with the silver wings of flying offiicers of the United States Army air forces.

Aviation Cadet Hanauer, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hanauer, 402 N. Douglas, Arlington Heights, attended the University of Rochester, Rochester, N. Y., during 1937-40, upon graduating from Arlington Heights high school with the class of 1937. He was a member of Chi Rho and Delta Kappa Epsilon at the University of Rochester. In civilian life he was employed by the Masonite corporation.

Cadet Hanauer completed elementary flight training at Stamford, Tex. He is married to the former Madeleine Jane McCoy of 105 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights.

Wyoming

Home for a few days furlough is Daune Folkman of Arlington Heights. Daune is stationed with the air corps at Casper, Wyoming.

"It was my sixth try for a furlough," says Daune, "with the five others all cancelled. Even this one was cancelled once, but then reinstated."

Sgt. Folkman arrived home last Saturday. He is scheduled to be back at Casper October 10.

With Uncle Sam finds son in Tulagi

With Uncle Sam has scored again. Location of another local serviceman, MOMM3c Paul Eberlein of Glenview, was accomplished through an edition of Paddock Publications.

It seems that on August 4 With Uncle Sam stated Dale Phillis of Arlington Heights was on Tulagi. We were "soundly spanked" for making such a statement, but it proved later to be true.

About a week ago relatives of Paul Eberlein received a letter, in part: "I can't say where I am located, but if you will look up the August 4 issue of Paddock's paper and see where Dale Phillis is stationed, you can find out where I am. We are both on the same island."

Enough said.

England

Pvt. Robert Ukleja of Wheeling is still in a hospital somewhere in England recovering from wounds received during the invasion of France.

Bob was with the 90th Infantry division of which a Stars and Strips reporter writes, "There are many unsung heroes in the war but it's hard to find as big a one as the 90th Infantry division. Some units of the division landed in Normandy at H hour. The entire division was in Normandy by D plus two and in the line by D plus four. The 90th had the unenviable task of cutting off the German attempt to escape from Cherbourg peninsula to the south. It was the 90th that cleared the Germans from the Foret de Mont Castre.

Bob writes that he is getting along well and is receiving good treatment in the hospital which is staffed by some nurses from the Chicago area.

Bob's address now is: Pvt. Robert Ukleja, 36712181, APO 519, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Now in England is Lt. Elvin Anderson of Arlington Heights. His address is: Lt. Elvin L. Anderson, 0-2060211, APO 559, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Georgia

From Fort Benning, Ga., comes word of Harry Kowalski of Palatine.

"I'm writing this to inform you of my new address. I am receiving the paper as I lived in Palatine a few years back and have some friends back there. I want you to know that I think highly of the paper and look forward to it.

"I'd appreciate any letter from any one interested in writing and I promise to answer them all."

His address is: Pvt. Harry Kowalski, Co. E, 5th Inf., APO 360, Fort Benning, Ga.

France

From France comes word of Gene Kelly of Palatine.

"Enclosed is a propaganda leaflet. We shoot these in shells with time fuses that burst over the enemy lines. Theoretically, this should make them see the light; but, personally, I doubt it. It has been our experience that they will give us a dose of 'counter battery.' Apparently just to show they are still in the fight.

"Lately our battery has had a ringside seat on some aerial warfare. I don't know how they stand it. Once we had a very minor dose ourselves and our nerves were unsettled for days. As much as the Germans have to face, they stubbornly hold out. You have to give Jerry credit; they are brave, or just plain bullheaded.

"Also enclosed is some so-called invasion money, put out by the Allies. Of course, we will have to redeem it sooner or later. A franc is worth about two cents. They have it tied to the English pound, which is worth four dollars and three cents. Two hundred francs to the pound. If you ever want to see something difficult you should try to do business in English money."

The propaganda leaflet, written in German, urges the German soldiers to surrender. It tells them France has fallen and that German panzer units are beaten and are retreating. It states that the fall of Brest is not far off.

His address is: 1st Lt. Francis E. Kelly, 0-1165409, APO 2, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Pvt. Ralph Busse entered the service December 10, 1943. He had his basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. He left the States sometime in July and arrived in England July

21. From there he was shipped to France where he is at the present with the armored tank division.

Pvt. Busse says their tanks are really going places over there and hopes that it won't be long now.

His address is: Pvt. Ralph A. Busse, 36773888, APO 15379, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

From France comes word of Harvey Schaefer of Arlington Heights.

"Have been laying around ever since we arrived here. We moved to better grounds, though, the other day after spending quite a time in a mud hole. Feels nice to be on green grass once more. Haven't been to town yet but hear they have beer and cognac there.

"The francs are worth two cents, so all you have to do is count your money, multiply by two, and you have it. They're playing 'By the light of the moon' on the victrola, and it really takes me back home."

His address is: Pvt. H. A. Schaefer, 36770535, APO 339, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

Now in action in France is William Meyer of Arlington Heights. His address is: Sgt. Wm. F. Meyer, 36731266, APO 403, c-o PM, New York, N. Y.

India

Corporal John Gieseke of Wheeling has written from India to ask that all mail be discontinued until further notice. His family is hoping that he is on his way back to the States. Cpl. Gieske has been in India for over two years and has been scheduled for a furlough for some time.

Missing

Mrs. Eva Nick of Wheeling has been informed that her son Pfc. John Nick was reported missing in action somewhere in France early in September. Pfc. Nick was with the motorized calvary and has been overseas since March and in France since late June.

Mrs. Nick has two other sons in the service as well as three sons-in-law. They are Cpl. Raymond Nick, now at Fort Benning, Ga., Pvt. Frank Nick at Camp Wallace, Texas, Wm. Lucas, Fireman 1c, % PM, San Francisco, Pvt. Harold Scharringhausen, Maryland, and John Coryell, Fireman 1c, Richmond, Va.

Oahu

From the island of Oahu comes word of Bill Schwankoff of Palatine.

"Am having it pretty easy this week so far although we have to go out on a course every day to learn to instruct other fellows. It is Jungle First-Aid and Evacuation. It is very interesting and we are also learning how to weave things out of the Hau bark from the Lauhala tree and also out of Palm Fraunds, such as litters to carry patients out of the jungle and such.

"Sure hope you don't have to get out your winter garments just yet. We sure are having some swell weather over here. It stays about the same all the time over here.

"The show of those stars was sure swell. We had Bop Hope and his troupe consisting of Frances Langford, Patty Thomas, Jerry Colonna, Tony Romano, and Barney Dean.

"The program they put on was similar to the ones that are broadcast over the radio. Bob Hope pulled plenty of jokes, Francis Langford sang quite a few songs and Patty Thomas did some tap dances and some acrobatic numbers. Jerry Colonna put on a comedy skit with Bob Hope and he also sang some songs. Tony Ramona played some numbers on his guitar and also sang some songs. Barney Dean pulled some comical jokes. All in all they put on a good show. We are to have Jack Benny and his troupe at our camp in the near future. Will tell you about his show."

His address is Cpl. Wm. J. Schwankoff, 36028059, APO 957, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Still on Oahu is Ralph Taege of Arlington Heights. Ralph is a supply sergeant with an armored group. His job is making office equipment and painting signs. Ralph has been on Oahu since December '43, and is qualified to wear two gold stars for the Marshalls and Saipan battles. His address is; Sgt. Ralph Taege, 36305855, APO 956, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Oklahoma

Albert R. Schwankoff, 495 Slade St., Palatine, was graduated recently from the Naval air technical training center located at Norman, Okla. While at the Norman school he studied the aviation specialty field for which his recruit training aptitude tests showed he was best suited, and is now eligible for a petty officer rate.

Texas

Another link in the chain of pyramiding US air power was forged this week as the navigation school of the AAF training command awarded silver wings to a host of newly qualified combat navigators at Hondo army air field, Hondo, Tex. Included in the class was 2nd Lt. James Jirak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jirak, 1348 Kensington road, Arlington Heights. After successful completion of 18 weeks of comprehensive aerial and ground training, these young Americans from every state in the Union are ready to lead AAF bombers to the crumbling defenses of Germany and to the beleaguered outposts of Japan. Ex-farm boys, football players, students and young business men, they now have a common objective—to "carry the mail" for the world's greatest air fleet.

"We'll find the way" is the slogan of the AAFs skilled "compass men." Bombers guided by American navigators have already delivered thousands of tons of death and destruction to the enemy, and more are on the way.

Some of the new graduates were officers before entering navigation training. Those who trained as cadets received with their wings their commissions as flight officers or second lieutenants.

Each of them is an aerial expert, trained to find the target by day or by night, in fair or inclement weather. Teamwork is their forte and the Axis their common objective.

Larry Schwartz of Arlington Heights writes from Camp Maxey, Texas.

"Just received that large amount from the traveling bank. It sure makes a fellow feel good to know the folks at home still remember him.

"Have an infection in my right hand. Don't know how long I'll have to stay in the hospital, but hope it isn't too long.

"Am due for a furlough soon if I stay with the same outfit. Am afraid, though, I am in for a transfer, as I soldiered only 2½ weeks with this group. I was in the hospital for 9 weeks because of my knee."

His address is Pvt. L. J. Schwartz, Co. A. 1267 Engrs. C Bn., Camp Maxey, Texas.

New York

Home for a few days from White Plains, New York, is George Mayer of Arlington Heights. George is a printer in Uncle Sam's navy, an occupation strictly in the minority in the navy, but "right in the groove" with us. His establishment, one of four large navy printing plants, gets out bulletins, circulars and WAVE promotional literature.

George has been in service a long time, and had his last furlough the first of this year. He arrived home Sunday, and is expected back in camp October 3.

Grew Fast

Under Soviet administration, Smolensk grew considerably. It increased in population from 104,000 in 1933 to nearly 160,000 in 1939. Flax, normally raised in large quantities in neighboring regions, provided the city with its chief industry. A modern "combinat," or group factory center, produced linen, linseed oil, rope, and allied products. Five railway lines converged on the city.

To offer some surplus food back to civilians

The federal government is now trimming its war food stocks, built up to meet every possible war emergency, to known future needs, and is releasing some of these stocks for the civilian trade, W. A. Stolte, district representative of the office of distribution, WFA, stated today.

The war food administration has been delegated the job of disposing of surplus government owned stocks thru normal trade channels, and is doing the job in line with its announced program not to disrupt the established markets Stolte asserted. The sale of government-owned foods does not mean the war is over, but it means that the long, hard pull to build up food reserves needed to make victory certain, may be leveling off.

"Some stocks not now needed are being released by WFA to civilian trade at the present time, while the supply is short—instead of after the war when the supply may be long. To move this food into civilian channels, WFA has set up a sales division in the procurement and price support branch and is using normal trade channels.

Mr. Stolte explained that no single sales procedure has been devised for the sale of surplus government owned food stocks. How the food is offered for sale, whether by offer to the original processor or to like processors, through food brokers, on an open bid basis, or in any other way, depends upon the conditions under which the offer is made. The nature of the product, its quality, location, and condition, and the demand for it all have a bearing on how it is offered.

"At the present time when many foods are in relatively short supply, one general practice has been to offer the food back to the original processors and vendors who sold it to the government in the first place," Stolte stated.

"These people know their own products and are better able than any one else to move them into civilian outlets with a minimum disturbance to the trade. If the original processor does not purchase the entire offering, the balance is offered processors of the same or like commodities because they, too, have established trade outlets for it. Other foods may be offered for sale through brokers or the open bid method.

Mr. Stolte emphasized that all food offered back to the original processor, to processors of the same or like commodities, or through brokers, is offered at the ceiling price, less the usual trade discount for relabeling, repackaging and the like. When release of food to the civilian trade cannot be made because of its effect on the market, or on account of the condition of the product, it may be released to industrial users for reprocessing, or, if the food is wholesome and in good condition distributed through the national community school lunch program, or to federal or state hospitals, or other institutions.

Oct. 31 deadline filing July-August feed applications

September 1 to October 31, 1944, is the time set aside for filing July-August dairy feed applications and evidence, Cook county AAA committeeman said today, and he asked farmers who expect to receive payments for this period to submit their applications and evidence within the 60 days allowed.

"The load of work in the county office is heavy," Mr. Hinz said, "and it will be much more satisfactory all around if you file your applications and evidence as soon as your final statements for a payment period are received from the dairy company." The Dairy feed payment program is one of the assignments given to the AAA by Congress and war food administration.

Good Ventilation

Adequate ventilation in storage is essential. Furthermore, squash or other fruits should be piled no more than three deep, and preferably in a single layer.

Certificates for machinery expire October 1, 1944

All certificates for the purchase of new farm machinery will be cancelled on October 1, 1944, Mr. Wm. A. Hinz, chairman of the Cook county AAA committee said today. Notices are being mailed to holders of these certificates for the purchase of rationed farm equipment, cancelling such certificates, October 1.

Mr. Hinz said that new certificates will be issued immediately following October 1, to those people whom the county farm rationing committee deem eligible. He explained that certificates issued prior to October 1, 1944, are being cancelled because many items have been taken from the rationed list and such certificates are no longer required. Tractors, pick-up balers, side delivery rakes, hay loaders, combines, manure spreaders, corn pickers, corn binders and mowers are still on the rationed list, Mr. Hinz added.

Grew Fast

Under Soviet administration, Smolensk grew considerably. It increased in population from 104,000 in 1933 to nearly 160,000 in 1939. Flax, normally raised in large quantities in neighboring regions, provided the city with its chief industry. A modern "combinat," or group factory center, produced linen, linseed oil, rope, and allied products. Five railway lines converged on the city.

To offer some surplus food back to civilians

The federal government is now trimming its war food stocks, built up to meet every possible war emergency, to known future needs, and is releasing some of these stocks for the civilian trade, W. A. Stolte, district representative of the office of distribution, WFA, stated today.

The war food administration has been delegated the job of disposing of surplus government owned stocks thru normal trade channels, and is doing the job in line with its announced program not to disrupt the established markets Stolte asserted. The sale of government-owned foods does not mean the war is over, but it means that the long, hard pull to build up food reserves needed to make victory certain, may be leveling off.

"Some stocks not now needed are being released by WFA to civilian trade at the present time, while the supply is short—instead of after the war when the supply may be long. To move this food into civilian channels, WFA has set up a sales division in the procurement and price support branch and is using normal trade channels.

Mr. Stolte explained that no single sales procedure has been devised for the sale of surplus government owned food stocks. How the food is offered for sale, whether by offer to the original processor or to like processors, through food brokers, on an open bid basis, or in any other way, depends upon the conditions under which the offer is made. The nature of the product, its quality, location, and condition, and the demand for it all have a bearing on how it is offered.

"At the present time when many foods are in relatively short supply, one general practice has been to offer the food back to the original processors and vendors who sold it to the government in the first place," Stolte stated.

"These people know their own products and are better able than any one else to move them into civilian outlets with a minimum disturbance to the trade. If the original processor does not purchase the entire offering, the balance is offered processors of the same or like commodities because they, too, have established trade outlets for it. Other foods may be offered for sale through brokers or the open bid method.

Mr. Stolte emphasized that all food offered back to the original processor, to processors of the same or like commodities, or through brokers, is offered at the ceiling price, less the usual trade discount for relabeling, repackaging and the like. When release of food to the civilian trade cannot be made because of its effect on the market, or on account of the condition of the product, it may be released to industrial users for reprocessing, or, if the food is wholesome and in good condition distributed through the national community school lunch program, or to federal or state hospitals, or other institutions.

Oct. 31 deadline filing July-August feed applications

September 1 to October 31, 1944, is the time set aside for filing July-August dairy feed applications and evidence, Cook county AAA committeeman said today, and he asked farmers who expect to receive payments for this period to submit their applications and evidence within the 60 days allowed.

"The load of work in the county office is heavy," Mr. Hinz said, "and it will be much more satisfactory all around if you file your applications and evidence as soon as your final statements for a payment period are received from the dairy company." The Dairy feed payment program is one of the assignments given to the AAA by Congress and war food administration.

Adequate ventilation in storage is essential. Furthermore, squash or other fruits should be piled no more than three deep, and preferably in a single layer.

Certificates for machinery expire October 1, 1944

All certificates for the purchase of new farm machinery will be cancelled on October 1, 1944, Mr. Wm. A. Hinz, chairman of the Cook county AAA committee said today. Notices are being mailed to holders of these certificates for the purchase of rationed farm equipment, cancelling such certificates, October 1.

Mr. Hinz said that new certificates will be issued immediately following October 1, to those people whom the county farm rationing committee deem eligible. He explained that certificates issued prior to October 1, 1944, are being cancelled because many items have been taken from the rationed list and such certificates are no longer required. Tractors, pick-up balers, side delivery rakes, hay loaders, combines, manure spreaders, corn pickers, corn binders and mowers are still on the rationed list, Mr. Hinz added.

Farmers look back on sixth big year in row

With the sun about to cross the equinox and formally usher in fall, Illinois farmers are taking stock of what has been accomplished this past summer and wondering how they will "make out" through soybean harvest and corn husking.

By and large, the planting of crops this past spring came during an unusually wet and backward season. This further complicated a critical labor problem left in the farmer's lap by the war. But the flow of food, feed and fibre to our armed forces and to those making ammunition and weapons of war has continued unchecked.

No food has failed to reach our fighting men because of lack of farm help in Illinois. With six straight years of big crops, it looks as though the seventh will be another good one, too.

The reason this unusual record has been maintained during the critical year of 1944 is because the need to share help and machinery has been emphasized early and late by county farm advisers and their farm labor assistants working with the state extension farm labor office at the University of Illinois. This cooperation between neighbors may well be one of the most inspiring stories of the war on the home front. Add to this the help of many young people, as well as some of the older people, too, from nearby towns and cities who have volunteered to do partime and even fulltime work.

Additional help, where larger numbers of workers were needed, has provided through the state extension farm labor office for vegetable production, apple and peach picking, corn detasseling and jobs of that kind.

Give outlook on all crops

Last week's sharp declines in the grain market have apparently been halted. The favorable crop report has not yet forced grain prices downward. The new crop of corn, however, is selling on a to-arrive basis at three cents under ceiling levels, with a discount of one cent a bushel for each month of delivery beyond September. Egg prices strengthened following a sizable purchase of storage-processed eggs by the Army last week end. Fat steer and heifer prices have broken, with only a few loads at top prices.

The official government crop estimate released Tuesday predicted a national corn crop of 3.1 billion bushels, the second largest on record and a 5½ per cent increase over the August 1 estimate. Improved crop prospects in the western corn belt states were responsible for the higher prospective yields; in Illinois the September 1 estimate is about 4½ million bushels less than that forecast August 1. The United States soybean crop estimate was raised to 179,024,000 bushels, but that is still far under the 195,762,000 bushel crop of 1943. In Illinois the soybean crop as of September 1 was estimated to be 66,300,000 bushels, over one per cent of the 1943 crop. The oats crop in Illinois was placed at 100,390,000 bushels, well under last year's production of 113,091,000 bushels.

Trading in corn futures on the Chicago Board of Trade was resumed Thursday. Directors of the exchange authorized trading at a ceiling price of $1.18¼ a bushel, with maximum permitted advances or declines of five cents from the opening range.

The price ceiling for turkeys, live weight, will drop one-half cent a pound October 1 and another half cent November 1. Price ceilings for dressed turkey will decline one cent October 1 and another cent November 1. Turkey producers who can finish their turkeys adequately and market them before these dates will be helping the armed services secure part of their needs and in addition may escape probable price declines.

The most recent report of the Federal reserve bank of Chicago shows that manufacturing employment and payrolls in the seventh district reached a peak in November, 1943, and have been declining gradually since that time, but employment is still approximately 1¼ times and payrolls 1⅔ times the 1939 average. Employment in manufacturing industries in the St. Louis metropolitan areas in June, 1944, was 16 per cent less than in June, 1943.

Farmer works longer hours in wartime

Man labor left on farms in east central Illinois, where cash-grain farming predominates, voluntarily increased the length of its work day 20 percent in 1943 over what it was accustomed to work just before the war. Hourly labor records of all workers on a representative group of farms in the cash-grain portion of the state have been carefully kept for about 25 years. They show that an increase in length of the work day began in 1940 and has been stepped up every year since, according to R. H. Wilcox, associate professor of farm management, University of Illinois.

The extra hours of work per day were necessary to overcome the decline in the number of farm laborers that occurred in the face of a marked increase in the amount of food and feed grown to meet war demands, Wilcox said. The operators of this group of typical farms increased crop production 23 percent above the level of 1938 and 1939 and did so with less men. At the same time their livestock production in 1943 was increased 50 percent above that of prewar years. These farmers and their labor force are using every possible method to economize time and reduce the physical effort and yet maintain the output of food. Their first interest, however, is to supply the needed food, though it means long days when laborers in other industries are demanding and often getting their work day or work week shortened.

In the postwar planning of these farmers, the economy of man labor ranks high in their thinking. This, they say, is going to be done by using all labor-saving machines to full advantage, Wilcox stated, by planning work in advance so that as few jobs as possible compete for time during the rush seasons, and by doing every farm job in the easiest way possible and still doing a thorough job of farming. In saving labor now and after the war no slip-shod methods will be tolerated on these farms.

"The farmer has every right to a shorter work day after the peace, and as a reward for his wartime performance he is planning to take it," Wilcox added.

Milkweed pods ready for picking, everyone needed

School children may begin picking milkweed pods immediately in southern and central Illinois, Dr. William I. De Wees, state supervisor of the milkweed floss collection program, has announced. Picking can be started in northern Illinois around September 15-18.

Only well-filled pods of true milkweed will be accepted, and these should be put into one bushel onion bags, which are supplied free to pickers. If other containers are used, the pods must be transferred to onion bags within 24 hours to prevent molding.

Bags should be filled, the tops tied securely and delivered within 24 hours after collecting to a buying station or else hung on a well-exposed fence at least one foot off the ground.

Pods packed in a tight box or thrown in a heap in the barn or on the ground are likely to mold quickly and spoil the floss, but bags of pods properly hung on the fences, will not be harmed by dew, rain or snow. The pods will usually dry within two to five weeks.

Milkweed floss is urgently needed to replace kapok in life jackets for the armed forces. Since our supply of kapok, formerly imported from Jap-held East Indies, has been cut off, 1,500,000 pounds of milkweed floss are needed this year as a substitute.

Cook county boy scouts and others interested may get bags and instructions from Mr. D. K. Penny, 23 N. Wacker drive, Phone Randolph 3760.

Need workers

"Lack of certain strategic war products is slowing up American advances on the fighting fronts, Manager Cleo C. Liepitz of the United States employment service office at 5306 W. Lawrence avenue revealed today, in announcing that job openings are available for 3,040 men and women workers in four war plants making vital "must' items for the armed forces.

Current shortages in war plants in this district include aircraft, radar, and their component parts.

Women workers can play an important role in turning out fighting tools, she declared. Approximately 1,600 job openings are for women.

Mrs. Liepitz urged all persons wanting a job in a "must" war plant to apply at the USES office, 5306 W. Lawrence avenue, any week day between 8:30 a. m. and 5:00 p. m.

Douglas planes fly ten million V-mails monthly

Army postal service in the Southwest Pacific is ready and waiting today to handle Christmas V-mail with efficiency and dispatch.

One of the major achievements of the war is the great job being done by the service keeping home-hungry soldiers in touch with their loved ones.

And a great share of that achievement goes to the big Douglas C-54 Skymasters that fly the mail from America to New Guinea, and the C-47 Skytrains that pick it up at Port Moresby and fly it to combat troops in forward areas.

Postal service in this theater handles 10,000,000 incoming air mail letters per month, flown by the Army transport command's C-54s from the states and up to forward APOs in Skytrains, the postal officer said today.

In addition, they handle 4,000,000 V-mail letters per month and 150,000 pounds of official mail, and fly thousands of pounds of priority packages to forward areas for the medical corps, Red cross, army special services, Army exchange, and Army information and education service.

Until a few months ago the air-mail and V-mail was flown from the states to a base in Australia. Here the V-mail letters were processed and those for troops in New Guinea forwarded by plane. However, as soon as the ATC began flying C-54s direct from the states to Port Moresby the Army postal service moved in and set up a V-mail station there. Now V-mail letters from the states reach the men in New Guinea 11 days after mailing.

Each APO is a branch of the San Francisco postoffice for the sale of stamps and money orders. And the San Francisco postoffice business must really be booming for the APOs down here sell $10,500,000 worth of money orders per month (sent by servicemen to the states) and $50,000 worth of stamped envelopes per month.

There's nothing like a letter from home to boost a man's morale and that's why the APOs follow the soldier wherever he goes. An army postal officer lands with the first troops in a new strike and sets up shop as soon as the enemy is driven off the beach.

And within hours after our troops capture an enemy airstrip the Douglas C-47s drop down with letters from home. Mail call was held 200 yards behind the front lines at Arawa and every other day for three months last summer mail was dropped by troop carrier C-47s to the otherwise isolated men of an entire division in New Guinea.

Camilla Galbo has sued Lawrence Woodell in Circuit court for $5,000 damages for injuries from being attacked by a ferocious dog he owned. She was bitten and knocked from the wheel sustaining injuries to her leg and back.

A good lunch makes a difference

The government is asking all of us to cooperate with the national nutrition program by emphasizing good nutrition, especially during September. Surveys show that lunches may often be the poorest meal of the day. War workers and school children are two groups of people who need better lunches than they are now eating.

At this critical period of the war, production must not be slowed down. In order to work efficiently war workers need an adequate lunch. A good lunch makes a big difference in the way you feel and the way you do your work. In other words, "A goofy lunch pulls your punch." An adequate lunch supplies energy to do better work on the job with plenty of energy left to enjoy leisure time.

You need a variety of foods. Do you know that a good lunch provides one-third of your day's needs in food nutrients? Whether you carry your lunch, or eat at home or in a restaurant, you should be able to follow the above rule.

If the following foods are eaten at lunch time, you may be sure that you have what food experts call a good lunch:

A main dish, or two sandwiches of meat, eggs, cheese, fish or poultry on enriched or whole wheat bread. A serving of fruit or vegetable. ½ pint of milk, to drink or in foods. A dessert of fruit, cookies, or cake, if you wish.

Children have started back to school this month. Their noon meal at school or at home is very important. In order to grow properly, children must be well-fed, which means that they need three nourishing meals a day, served at regular hours. School children's lunches should be substantial, providing about one-third of the day's needs.

If your child's lunch follows the pattern given above, you may be sure he, too, will feel better, do a better job at school, and have enough energy for playtime after school.

You will want a copy of "eat a lunch that packs a punch." Write to the Chicago Nutrition Committee, 209 W. Jackson boulevard, Room 600, Chicago, 6.

Partially ripe tomatoes are worth saving

The coming of frost usually finds our tomato vines laden with fruits in all stages of development. Some of these tomatoes are still small and grass green; some are in the white-nose stage; some in the yellowish-red stage; some are half red; and others are nearly ripe.

When the first frost of fall threatens, the gardener should pick all of the tomatoes and store them in a basement or other place which is safe from frost. Spread them out on a rack or shelf or on the floor to ripen.

Grass-green tomatoes will not ripen. These should be used within a few days in making chow-chows, picalillies or green tomato pickles. If not used within a few days, these will shrivel and become worthless.

The white-nosed and yellowish-red tomatoes will color up but will never develop a full rich flavor. Their texture will be rubbery like southern tomatoes that are shipped to the northern markets during the winter months. They make fair slicing tomatoes for three to four weeks after picking, but they never develop canning quality.

The half red and nearly ripe tomatoes will ripen to a nearly normal red color, a good flavor and a good texture in ten days to two weeks. The riper specimens may be used for canning or juicing. If frost has already killed the tender vines and leaves, it is usually possible to salvage that small part of the crop that has had some protection.

Green peppers, too, may be saved by the same method. The smaller and more immature specimens will shrivel and should be discarded. The more mature specimens will reach nearly normal maturity over a period of three to four weeks.

Farmers look back on sixth big year in row

With the sun about to cross the equinox and formally usher in fall, Illinois farmers are taking stock of what has been accomplished this past summer and wondering how they will "make out" through soybean harvest and corn husking.

By and large, the planting of crops this past spring came during an unusually wet and backward season. This further complicated a critical labor problem left in the farmer's lap by the war. But the flow of food, feed and fibre to our armed forces and to those making ammunition and weapons of war has continued unchecked.

No food has failed to reach our fighting men because of lack of farm help in Illinois. With six straight years of big crops, it looks as though the seventh will be another good one, too.

The reason this unusual record has been maintained during the critical year of 1944 is because the need to share help and machinery has been emphasized early and late by county farm advisers and their farm labor assistants working with the state extension farm labor office at the University of Illinois. This cooperation between neighbors may well be one of the most inspiring stories of the war on the home front. Add to this the help of many young people, as well as some of the older people, too, from nearby towns and cities who have volunteered to do partime and even full-time work.

Additional help, where larger numbers of workers were needed, has provided through the state extension farm labor office for vegetable production, apple and peach picking, corn detasseling and jobs of that kind.

Give outlook on all crops

Last week's sharp declines in the grain market have apparently been halted. The favorable crop report has not yet forced grain prices downward. The new crop of corn, however, is selling on a to-arrive basis at three cents under ceiling levels, with a discount of one cent a bushel for each month of delivery beyond September. Egg prices strengthened following a sizable purchase of storage-processed eggs by the Army last week end. Fat steer and heifer prices have broken, with only a few loads at top prices.

The official government crop estimate released Tuesday predicted a national corn crop of 3.1 billion bushels, the second largest on record and a 5½ per cent increase over the August 1 estimate. Improved crop prospects in the western corn belt states were responsible for the higher prospective yields; in Illinois the September 1 estimate is about 4½ million bushels less than that forecast August 1. The United States soybean crop estimate was raised to 179,024,000 bushels, but that is still far under the 195,762,000 bushel crop of 1943. In Illinois the soybean crop as of September 1 was estimated to be 66,300,000 bushels, over one per cent of the 1943 crop. The oats crop in Illinois was placed at 100,390,000 bushels, well under last year's production of 113,091,000 bushels.

Trading in corn futures on the Chicago Board of Trade was resumed Thursday. Directors of the exchange authorized trading at a ceiling price of $1.18¼ a bushel, with maximum permitted advances or declines of five cents from the opening range.

The price ceiling for turkeys, live weight, will drop one-half cent a pound October 1 and another half cent November 1. Palatine noses out Crystal Lake JVs, 2-0

Palatine defeated Crystal Lake's junior varsity team 2-0 Friday in a game which should have finished 20-6 had the offense of both teams clicked inside their opponents' 10-yard stripes. Palatine missed three scoring chances in the first half and Crystal Lake failed twice in the final quarter. Palatine had much the better argument from the standpoint of ground gaining and may not find the opposing Northwest Conference teams a whole lot tougher than their rivals of last Friday.

The winning points came near the start of the second half when a bad pass by the Crystal Lake center rolled 23 yards into the end zone. It was picked up by a Laker but he was tackled by Don Stephan before he could advance the ball onto the field of play thus giving the Pirates a safety.

In the first period Moody recovered a Laker fumble in the air and ran to the 9 yard line but the offense bogged down and the Pirates lost the ball on the six. A little later Palatine moved down to the Crystal Lake eight yard line before losing the ball. As the first half ended Palatine had third down on the Crystal Lake six yard marker. After the two point safety in the third period Palatine started rolling but two 15-yard penalties nullified their efforts.

Midway in the last quarter the Lakers intercepted a pass and ran it to the Pirates' thirty-six. Fanner then passed 30 yards to Krause on the Palatine six. Two plays netted three yards and then Crystal Lake fumbled and Palatine recovered on the three inch line. After Moody punted out Crystal Lake again passed to the four-yard line and ran to the two but a five-yard penalty set them back and a little later Palatine took over on the six. The final play was a 15-yard run by Moody who averaged 5½ yards a try in 18 attempts for 97 yards net gain. Smith who was hitting the line the hardest got 26 yards in eight tries.

Three hundred fifty people saw Friday's game including all 300 of the Palatine students. Crystal Lake kept 22 boys out of the game, who drubbed Leyden 27-6 the next afternoon.

Cards win conference opener at Lake Forest

Local squad wins, 19-7

The Cardinal football team opened its conference football season with a bang by defeating the highly touted Lake Forest by a margin of two touchdowns. In a game characterized by hard sharp blocking and tackling, the Cards scored two touchdowns in the second quarter to lead at halftime 13-0. Early in the third quarter Lake Forest scored to bring the total to 13-7. As the last quarter began the Cards retaliated and scored again, leaving the final score at 19-7 Arlington.

The first quarter was even, neither team being able to launch a serious threat and each punting several times. As the second quarter began, Lake Forest punted to the Arlington safety man, McDonald, who received the kick on his own 23 yard line and ran it back to the Cardinal 34. Williams picked up 5 yards on a line buck, Stroker passed to Page for 17, Ehard gained 4 on a reverse. Williams and Ehard picked up 9 yards in two tries, and then with a second down on the Lake Forest 31 yard line, McDonald found a big hole in the Lake Forest line and went all the way for a touchdown. Score Arlington 6; Lake Forest 0. The extra point was missed.

Arlington kicked off to Lake Forest and after three plays had failed to gain, the Scouts punted to McDonald who received on his own 28 yard line and ran the ball back to the Arlington 38. Williams cracked center for two yards and then McDonald, on a beautiful end run carried the ball sixty yards for the second Arlington touchdown, behind some beautiful blocking. On this play, Jack McArdle made the play of the game, blocking out two defensive backs with one block, giving McDonald a clear path to the goal. McArdle was injured on the play and had to be removed from the game. Robinson converted for the extra point and the score stood at 13-0 Arlington at half time.

Lakers Drive Hard

As the third quarter began Lake Forest began a drive from the 50 yard line, and marching steadily, chopped off short gains until they reached the Arlington 20 yard line, at which point Tebeliart, Lake Forest left half, broke away and crossed the goal line. The extra point was good. Arlington 13, Lake Forest 7.

The last touchdown was scored by Arlington as the third quarter ended. Arlington took the ball on its own 45 after Ehard had picked up 4 and Williams 9 through the Lake Forest line. Robinson threw a short pass to Page, who ran the ball down to the Lake Forest 4 yard line. Williams bucked the line for a 1 yard gain, and then on the same play went over for a touchdown. The extra point was missed. Final score Arlington 19, Lake Forest 7.

MAC SAYS:

BY GERALD A. McELROY

Arlington's decisive 19-7 defeat of Lake Forest Friday stamps the Cardinals as one of the teams that must be considered in the coming Northeast Conference race. The Northeast Conference resumes league competition after a year's lapse in which league authorities were frightened by the gas shortage. With the league functioning again there appear to this writer to be three teams which must be given high rating in any championship talk at this time. We refer to Libertyville, Crystal Lake, and Arlington Heights. To us they seem to come in that order in the pre-season ratings with Woodstock and Lake Forest on a par for fourth, Niles and Leyden for sixth, and Warren bringing up the rear.

Wildcats Have 15 Straight Grid Victories

Libertyville has not lost a football game since Crystal Lake nosed them out 9-6 in the last week in October in 1941. The Wildcats won their only conference victory of that season the following week at Arlington Heights 6-0. In 1942 the "Cats" won four and tied two for the championship. Last year they took six league and two non-league contests to run their unbroken string to no defeats in their last 15 games.

Libertyville Is Our Pick All The Way

This year Coach Art Bergstrom has six regulars returning from the team which won every league battle by at least a three-touchdown margin last year. Two of the six were all-conference men last year. Libertyville this year is not as good as last but has the biggest team and the most power in the league. They have just about as much speed as any team in the backfield with four lettermen and an accomplished forward passer, Norman Ericksen. Libertyville can be down a good way from last year and still breeze through the league schedule. Both Arlington and Crystal Lake, chief rivals in our book, are among the lighter teams in the league and will have a tough time with the Libertyville power attack. Both Arlington and Crystal Lake stress end runs and passes. Libertyville's tall, speedy backfield veterans, should be able to stop the passing and open running if anyone can. No, we can't again see anyone but Libertyville.

Crystal Lake Has A Classy Ball Team

Crystal Lake will have a classy team. They demonstrated that they are far along in preparation for the league season by a very efficient and smooth performance at Leyden. Crystal Lake is strong in every department of offense and with 15 experienced first stringers from last year should be hard to fool. The Lakers will meet the question team of the year at Woodstock this week. Larry Dale's team upset Owen Metcalf's Tigers last year and has a beefy outfit almost intact from 1943. Last year reports showed Woodstock as a slow team. Arlington's wide open stuff set them back decisively on two occasions. We sure want to see that Crystal Lake game at Libertyville on Saturday, October 14.

Seidler Making Arlington A Contender

Arlington was supposed to be one of the weaklings this year with just a bunch of pint sized kids who would be pushed around a lot by the tough teams but the Cards have shown enough in their first two games to definitely rate a first division berth if they keep going. Playing a razzle dazzle type of ball Arlington is making the best possible use of their running and passing talent and the line which was expected to be hard put to hold up has held its own in nice style. Due to injuries the Cards were not at full strength in their two openers with Bensenville and Lake Forest either. A veteran referee predicted Lake Forest would be too tough for the Cards due to an outstanding line but Arlington came through with a 19-7 victory. It looks like Coach Seidler is going on where he left off last fall when he rejuvenated Arlington's football spirits in mid-season and had the squad playing championship ball as the season closed.

We Never Count Lake Forest Out

We never yet saw a Lindenmeyer coached football team that was not a contender and just on general principals we would place them in the first division. Last week's defeat at the hands of Arlington did not count in the standings and if we know "Lindy" his team will be tough to beat right down to the wire. Leyden and Niles do not figure to more than break even this year though we have no scores on which to base our estimate of Isaacson's Niles Trojans. Warren, defeated at the hands of Antioch, who in turn was trounced 25-0 by McHenry, does not appear to have what it takes to be a serious contender this year but Kelton brings his youngsters along and he has a very large squad with more experience than last season. Every year Warren pulls an upset. Last year it was to tie Niles who lost only one game.

Pick Arlington Over Warren

This week as the season opens with the teams playing for keeps it looks to us like Arlington should beat Warren, Libertyville trounce Leyden, Lake Forest nose out Niles in a very close one and Crystal Lake sneak by Woodstock without too much to spare.

N. W. League Is Below Par

On the basis of preseason records there is little to choose in the Northwest Conference. As far as we are concerned you can have them all and we won't take any of them. It just looks that bad. We hope that we are wrong and that the Northwest teams just booked too strong pre-season opposition.

Northbrook Is Our Choice

It is really going out on a limb but we are picking Northbrook to repeat this year. A few weeks ago they did not look so good on paper but Coach Bill Lutz has his backfield problem about solved and if Sherman, all conference guard of last year, is not called to the army air corps too soon the Vikings will make a strong bid. Sherman will likely be moved to the backfield as Niles is strong in the line. Lutz has four tackles to use who weigh over 180 and his center, Brown, is of college calibre right now according to the dope that comes our way. Both ends are back and are good pass catchers. It looks like Northbrook has an edge if anyone does.

Bronchos Or Bisons As Runnersup

From there on who to pick? Barrington might be second as Clark has a lot of swell junior material. Whether they will develop fast enough is the question but they are pretty sure to be in the top three. Bensenville has the possibilities of being the other first division team but like Barrington is pretty green. Palatine has several sophomores as starters and has not shown enough in pre-season games to warrant very high rating but in an even race might surprise if the boys do not give up too easily. Grant and Antioch appeared to be set with a little experienced material but both fell badly before McHenry. However, McHenry scores may be misleading for the dope is that McCracken's McHenry team is really outstanding. Last year they lost only to Northbrook and they have a veteran team returning. One thing about it, every team will be strong enough in the Northwest loop to come out on top if it gets the breaks, trains, and makes the most of its ability and opportunities. It is going to be just that close and we feel pretty certain that no one is going to romp through the schedule undefeated as Northbrook and Antioch have the past two seasons.

All Conference Teams Again

We are going to pick all-conference football teams again this year in both leagues if coaches and fans cooperate by sending us nominations and tips on who looks the best to them. A perfect set up would be for each team to pick an all-opponents team.

We Were In Error

In speaking of Woodstock's football prospects last week we were in error in stating that they defeated Arlington last year. In fact Arlington beat Woodstock twice 26-0 and 14-0. The first victory, the one we had turned around, was won under Barnhill's coaching and the second came under Seidler's direction.

Jagade A Big Ten Star

Coach Seidler of Arlington remarked to me last fall that Harry Jagade of Leyden was real Big Ten material. Jagade proved this point Saturday when he plunged through Illinois for two touchdowns to give Indiana a 12-6 lead at the half of a game they later lost 26-18.

Open Season Friday

Opening the five game league card we have Bensenville at Northbrook and Barrington at Antioch on Friday and Palatine at Grant on Saturday night. All are toss-ups and more than a single touchdown margin if any of the three games will come as a surprise to us.

Vikings Play No Pre-Season Games

Northbrook goes into the conference season without a pre-season game. The nearest to a game was a scrimmage with North Shore Country Day school with coaches calling the signals. Northbrook got one touch down and North Shore none.

Pirates Rate Grant Above Bisons

Palatine boys who saw Bensenville lose Saturday thought the Bisons were pretty weak but the same night watching McHenry swamp Grant they reported Grant as looking rather strong. Could the reason be the fact that Palatine plays Grant Friday? Palatine's grid team this fall certainly cannot be charged with cockiness and over confidence.

Grant opens vs. Palatine under lights

By G. A. McElroy

(This is the fourth in a series of articles dealing with Northwest Conference football prospects).

Grant High of Fox Lake who finished in a tie with Bensenville for second in the league last year has a new coach, Paul G. Lewis, but a good share of last season's regulars. Among the seven lettermen on the squad are six regular performers. Last year Grant lost to Bensenville and Northbrook while defeating Palatine, Barrington, and Antioch.

Saturday night the Bulldogs of Grant open the season under the lights against Palatine in the same setting as two years ago when Palatine, starting football after a seven year lapse, took Grant into camp 16-7. It ought to be a very even game as will be most of those played in the league this year. Grant did not look very strong against the powerful McHenry eleven last week but the Pirates likewise have not shown as much as they really have in the preliminary games. Both teams depend a good deal on power and do not have many fast men.

Grant's is led by Bill Paustian, all conference quarterback of last season, who is a good passer and kicker, though weighing only 130 pounds. Robert Thompson, 160, half back, was one of the leading ground gainers last year. Harold Cragg, a senior tackle weighs 180. Jerry Mahoney, a lanky six foot basketball star, is a backfield letterman and weighs 155. Grant has three junior lettermen who were regulars last season in Harry Hansen, 155, center or halfback; Richard Tylkowski, 150, end; and Jerry Altman, 140, guard. Juniors and sophomores expected to see action are Seymour, guard, 135; Francis, end, 150; Nehmer, guard, 145; Mika, guard, 135; Novak, tackle, 220; Winkle, tackle, 150; Sugden, fullback, 140; Barrett, quarterback, 130; Arnison, end, 145; and Jay Seymour, end, 145.

The return of Stanley Arendt to the Palatine team this week may help boost morale and give more line bucking strength to the team as the 165 pound son of the Inverness golf pro is the fastest boy on the Palatine squad. Arendt has been under observation for high blood pressure but it is now down to normal. The Palatine team has as much stuff as most of the conference teams but so far has shown a great lack of confidence in themselves. If they resign themselves to the fact that they are licked before they start they are pretty certain to end up on the short end of the score. With a heavier line and backfield Palatine should be able to buck their way for plenty of yardage against Grant just as they did both last year and the year before.

Plastic Protects Openings

Openings on airplane and tank motors are protected from dust and other foreign matter during assembly and shipment by covers of tough, transparent cellulose acetate plastic.

Immaculate Conception of Elmhurst dealt Bensenville a decisive 18-0 defeat on the Bison gridiron Saturday. The Bison's line seemed to fall apart and their backs had little opportunity to get started before the opponents were on top of them. Bensenville's passing attack was nil because they were tackled before they could get the aerials away and quite a few punts were blocked. It was a case of line weakness making the whole team weak.

Immaculate scored in the first quarter on a pass from Daley to Horner. They came back immediately with another by blocking a punt and scoring on a fake reverse by Daley from the five yard line. The third score came on a long power drive in the last quarter with Rausch carrying the ball over.

Observers of the game state that the Bisons will have to show more spirit in their playing if they are to cut a figure in the coming conference race.

Explanation

There was no official Northeast schedule last year and only Libertyville, Niles, and Arlington played really representative schedules. Libertyville played all but Woodstock. Arlington played everyone including Woodstock twice who they defeated on both occasions 26-0 and 14-0. Arlington also beat Warren. Niles did not play Woodstock, was tied by Warren and beaten by Libertyville. Leyden lost to Libertyville and Niles and beat Arlington. Lake Forest had the same results as Leyden against the same teams. Woodstock dropped two to Arlington but whipped Crystal Lake 12-6. Crystal Lake beat Arlington but lost to Niles, Libertyville, and Woodstock. Warren lost to Libertyville and Arlington and tied Niles 13-13.

Game starts at 2:30; expect crowd

The Cardinal eleven plays its first home game of the season this Saturday at 2:30 p. m. when it meets the Blue Devils of Warren at Arlington Heights. Not much is known of the strength of the Warren eleven, its record being only a 13-6 defeat at the hands of Antioch last week.

On paper, Arlington should win, but Warren has always proved to be a tough opponent, and this year should be no exception. Coach Seidler has been conducting extensive work outs in preparation for this game and appears to be worried over the outcome.

The Cardinals have lost the services of Jack McArdle, a standout in the line, and much effort is being expended to fill the gap left by his loss. McArdle suffered an injured collar bone in the Lake Forest game and will be out of the lineup for at least three games.

This year's Cardinal eleven is a good one, so let's all get out and see it play!

Cards win conference opener at Lake Forest

Local squad wins, 19-7

The Cardinal football team opened its conference football season with a bang by defeating the highly touted Lake Forest by a margin of two touchdowns. In a game characterized by hard sharp blocking and tackling, the Cards scored two touchdowns in the second quarter to lead at halftime 13-0. Early in the third quarter Lake Forest scored to bring the total to 13-7. As the last quarter began the Cards retaliated and scored again, leaving the final score at 19-7 Arlington.

The first quarter was even, neither team being able to launch a serious threat and each punting several times. As the second quarter began, Lake Forest punted to the Arlington safety man, McDonald, who received the kick on his own 23 yard line and ran it back to the Cardinal 34. Williams picked up 5 yards on a line buck, Stroker passed to Page for 17, Ehard gained 4 on a reverse. Williams and Ehard picked up 9 yards in two tries, and then with a second down on the Lake Forest 31 yard line, McDonald found a big hole in the Lake Forest line and went all the way for a touchdown. Score Arlington 6; Lake Forest 0. The extra point was missed.

Arlington kicked off to Lake Forest and after three plays had failed to gain, the Scouts punted to McDonald who received on his own 28 yard line and ran the ball back to the Arlington 38. Williams cracked center for two yards and then McDonald, on a beautiful end run carried the ball sixty yards for the second Arlington touchdown, behind some beautiful blocking. On this play, Jack McArdle made the play of the game, blocking out two defensive backs with one block, giving McDonald a clear path to the goal. McArdle was injured on the play and had to be removed from the game. Robinson converted for the extra point and the score stood at 13-0 Arlington at half time.

Lakers Drive Hard

As the third quarter began Lake Forest began a drive from the 50 yard line, and marching steadily, chopped off short gains until they reached the Arlington 20 yard line, at which point Tebellart, Lake Forest left half, broke away and crossed the goal line. The extra point was good. Arlington 13, Lake Forest 7.

The last touchdown was scored by Arlington as the third quarter ended. Arlington took the ball on its own 45 after Ehard had picked up 4 and Williams 9 through the Lake Forest line. Robinson threw a short pass to Page, who ran the ball down to the Lake Forest 4 yard line. Williams bucked the line for a 1 yard gain, and then on the same play went over for a touchdown. The extra point was missed. Final score Arlington 19, Lake Forest 7.

MAC SAYS:

BY GERALD A. McELROY

Arlington's decisive 19-7 defeat of Lake Forest Friday stamps the Cardinals as one of the teams that must be considered in the coming Northeast Conference race. The Northeast Conference resumes league competition after a year's lapse in which league authorities were frightened by the gas shortage. With the league functioning again there appear to this writer to be three teams which must be given high rating in any championship talk at this time. We refer to Libertyville, Crystal Lake, and Arlington Heights. To us they seem to come in that order in the preseason ratings with Woodstock and Lake Forest on a par for fourth, Niles and Leyden for sixth, and Warren bringing up the rear.

Wildcats Have 15 Straight Grid Victories

Libertyville has not lost a football game since Crystal Lake nosed them out 9-6 in the last week in October in 1941. The Wildcats won their only conference victory of that season the following week at Arlington Heights 6-0. In 1942 the "Cats" won four and tied two for the championship. Last year they took six league and two non-league contests to run their unbroken string to no defeats in their last 15 games.

Libertyville Is Our Pick All The Way

This year Coach Art Bergstrom has six regulars returning from the team which won every league battle by at least a three-touchdown margin last year. Two of the six were all-conference men last year. Libertyville this year is not as good as last but has the biggest team and the most power in the league. They have just about as much speed as any team in the backfield with four lettermen and an accomplished forward passer, Norman Ericksen. Libertyville can be down a good way from last year and still breeze through the league schedule. Both Arlington and Crystal Lake, chief rivals in our book, are among the lighter teams in the league and will have a tough time with the Libertyville power attack. Both Arlington and Crystal Lake stress end runs and passes. Libertyville's tall, speedy backfield veterans, should be able to stop the passing and open running if anyone can. No, we can't again see anyone but Libertyville.

Crystal Lake Has A Classy Ball Team

Crystal Lake will have a classy team. They demonstrated that they are far along in preparation for the league season by a very efficient and smooth performance at Leyden. Crystal Lake is strong in every department of offense and with 15 experienced first stringers from last year should be hard to fool. The Lakers will meet the question team of the year at Woodstock this week. Larry Dale's team upset Owen Metcalf's Tigers last year and has a beefy outfit almost intact from 1943. Last year reports showed Woodstock as a slow team, Arlington's wide open stuff set them back decisively on two occasions. We sure want to see that Crystal Lake game at Libertyville on Saturday, October 14.

Seidler Making Arlington A Contender

Arlington was supposed to be one of the weaklings this year with just a bunch of pint sized kids who would be pushed around a lot by the tough teams but the Cards have shown enough in their first two games to definitely rate a first division berth if they keep going. Playing a razzle dazzle type of ball Arlington is making the best possible use of their running and passing talent and the line which was expected to be hard put to hold up has held its own in nice style. Due to injuries the Cards were not at full strength in their two openers with Bensenville and Lake Forest either. A veteran referee predicted Lake Forest would be too tough for the Cards due to an outstanding line but Arlington came through with a 19-7 victory. It looks like Coach Seidler is going on where he left off last fall when he rejuvenated Arlington's football spirits in mid-season and had the squad playing championship ball as the season closed.

We Never Count Lake Forest Out

We never yet saw a Lindenmeyer coached football team that was not a contender and just on general principals we would place them in the first division. Last week's defeat at the hands of Arlington did not count in the standings and if we know "Lindy" his team will be tough to beat right down to the wire. Leyden and Niles do not figure to more than break even this year though we have no scores on which to base our estimate of Isaacson's Niles Trojans. Warren, defeated at the hands of Antioch, who in turn was trounced 25-0 by McHenry, does not appear to have what it takes to be a serious contender this year but Kelton brings his youngsters along and he has a very large squad with more experience than last season. Every year Warren pulls an upset. Last year it was to tie Niles who lost only one game.

Pick Arlington Over Warren

This week as the season opens with the teams playing for keeps it looks to us like Arlington should beat Warren, Libertyville trounce Leyden, Lake Forest nose out Niles in a very close one and Crystal Lake sneak by Woodstock without too much to spare.

N. W. League Is Below Par

On the basis of preseason records there is little to choose in the Northwest Conference. As far as we are concerned you can have them all and we won't take any of them. It just looks that bad. We hope that we are wrong and that the Northwest teams just booked too strong pre-season opposition.

Northbrook Is Our Choice

It is really going out on a limb but we are picking Northbrook to repeat this year. A few weeks ago they did not look so good on paper but Coach Bill Lutz has his backfield problem about solved and if Sherman, all conference guard of last year, is not called to the army air corps too soon the Vikings will make a strong bid. Sherman will likely be moved to the backfield as Niles is strong in the line. Lutz has four tackles to use who weigh over 180 and his center, Brown, is of college calibre right now according to the dope that comes our way. Both ends are back and are good pass catchers. It looks like Northbrook has an edge if anyone does.

Bronchos Or Bisons As Runnersup

From there on who to pick? Barrington might be second as Clark has a lot of swell junior material. Whether they will develop fast enough is the question but they are pretty sure to be in the top three. Bensenville has the possibilities of being the other first division team but like Barrington is pretty green. Palatine has several sophomores as starters and has not shown enough in pre-season games to warrant very high rating but in an even race might surprise if the boys do not give up too easily. Grant and Antioch appeared to be set with a little experienced material but both fell badly before McHenry. However, McHenry scores may be misleading for the dope is that McCracken's McHenry team is really outstanding. Last year they lost only to Northbrook and they have a veteran team returning. One thing about it, every team will be strong enough in the Northwest loop to come out on top if it gets the breaks, trains, and makes the most of its ability and opportunities. It is going to be just that close and we feel pretty certain that no one is going to romp through the schedule undefeated as Northbrook and Antioch have the past two seasons.

All Conference Teams Again

We are going to pick all-conference football teams again this year in both leagues if coaches and fans cooperate by sending us nominations and tips on who looks the best to them. A perfect set up would be for each team to pick an all-opponents team.

We Were In Error

In speaking of Woodstock's football prospects last week we were in error in stating that they defeated Arlington last year. In fact Arlington beat Woodstock twice 26-0 and 14-0. The first victory, the one we had turned around, was won under Barnhill's coaching and the second came under Seidler's direction.

Jagade A Big Ten Star

Coach Seidler of Arlington remarked to me last fall that Harry Jagade of Leyden was real Big Ten material. Jagade proved this point Saturday when he plunged through Illinois for two touchdowns to give Indiana a 12-6 lead at the half of a game they later lost 26-18.

Open Season Friday

Opening the five game league card we have Bensenville at Northbrook and Barrington at Antioch on Friday and Palatine at Grant on Saturday night. All are toss-ups and more than a single touchdown margin if any of the three games will come as a surprise to us.

Vikings Play No Pre-Season Games

Northbrook goes into the conference season without a pre-season game. The nearest to a game was a scrimmage with North Shore Country Day school with coaches calling the signals. Northbrook got one touch down and North Shore none.

Pirates Rate Grant Above Bisons

Palatine boys who saw Bensenville lose Saturday thought the Bisons were pretty weak but the same night watching McHenry swamp Grant they reported Grant as looking rather strong. Could the reason be the fact that Palatine plays Grant Friday? Palatine's grid team this fall certainly cannot be charged with cockiness and over confidence.

Bensenville falls to Elmhurst school, 18-0

Immaculate Conception of Elmhurst dealt Bensenville a decisive 18-0 defeat on the Bison gridiron Saturday. The Bison's line seemed to fall apart and their backs had little opportunity to get started before the opponents were on top of them. Bensenville's passing attack was nil because they were tackled before they could get the aerials away and quite a few punts were blocked. It was a case of line weakness making the whole team weak.

Immaculate scored in the first quarter on a pass from Daley to Horner. They came back immediately with another by blocking a punt and scoring on a fake reverse by Daley from the five yard line. The third score came on a long power drive in the last quarter with Rausch carrying the ball over.

Observers of the game state that the Bisons will have to show more spirit in their playing if they are to cut a figure in the coming conference race.

Grant opens vs Palatine under lights

By G. A. McElroy

(This is the fourth in a series of articles dealing with Northwest Conference football prospects).

Grant High of Fox Lake who finished in a tie with Bensenville for second in the league last year has a new coach, Paul G. Lewis, but a good share of last season's regulars. Among the seven lettermen on the squad are six regular performers. Last year Grant lost to Bensenville and Northbrook while defeating Palatine, Barrington, and Antioch.

Saturday night the Bulldogs of Grant open the season under the lights against Palatine in the same setting as two years ago when Palatine, starting football after a seven year lapse, took Grant into camp 16-7. It ought to be a very even game as will be most of those played in the league this year. Grant did not look very strong against the powerful McHenry eleven last week but the Pirates likewise have not shown as much as they really have in the preliminary games. Both teams depend a good deal on power and do not have many fast men.

Grant's is led by Bill Paustian, all conference quarterback of last season, who is a good passer and kicker, though weighing only 130 pounds. Robert Thompson, 160, half back, was one of the leading ground gainers last year. Harold Cragg, a senior tackle weighs 180. Jerry Mahoney, a lanky six foot basketball star, is a backfield letterman and weighs 155. Grant has three junior lettermen who were regulars last season in Harry Hansen, 155, center or halfback; Richard Tylkowski, 150, end; and Jerry Altman, 140, guard. Juniors and sophomores expected to see action are Seymour, guard, 135; Francis, end, 150; Nehmer, guard, 145; Mika, guard, 135; Novak, tackle, 220; Winkle, tackle, 150; Sugden, fullback, 140; Barrett, quarterback, 130; Arnison, end, 145; and Jay Seymour, end, 145.

The return of Stanley Arendt to the Palatine team this week may help boost morale and give more line bucking strength to the team as the 165 pound son of the Inverness golf pro is the fastest boy on the Palatine squad. Arendt has been under observation for high blood pressure but it is now down to normal. The Palatine team has as much stuff as most of the conference teams but so far has shown a great lack of confidence in themselves. If they reassign themselves to the fact that they are licked before they start they are pretty certain to end up on the short end of the score. With a heavier line and backfield Palatine should be able to buck their way for plenty of yardage against Grant just as they did both last year and the year before.

Explanation

There was no official Northeast schedule last year and only Libertyville, Niles, and Arlington played really representative schedules. Libertyville played all but Woodstock. Arlington played everyone including Woodstock twice who they defeated on both occasions 26-0 and 14-0. Arlington also beat Warren. Niles did not play Woodstock, was tied by Warren and beaten by Libertyville. Leyden lost to Libertyville and Niles and beat Arlington. Lake Forest had the same results as Leyden against the same teams. Woodstock dropped two to Arlington but whipped Crystal Lake 12-6. Crystal Lake beat Arlington but lost to Niles, Libertyville, and Woodstock. Warren lost to Libertyville and Arlington and tied Niles 13-13.

Game starts at 2:30; expect crowd

The Cardinal eleven plays its first home game of the season this Saturday at 2:30 p. m. when it meets the Blue Devils of Warren at Arlington Heights. Not much is known of the strength of the Warren eleven, its record being only a 13-6 defeat at the hands of Antioch last week.

On paper, Arlington should win, but Warren has always proved to be a tough opponent, and this year should be no exception. Coach Seidler has been conducting extensive work outs in preparation for this game and appears to be worried over the outcome.

The Cardinals have lost the services of Jack McArdle, a standout in the line, and much effort is being expended to fill the gap left by his loss. McArdle suffered an injured collar bone in the Lake Forest game and will be out of the lineup for at least three games.

This year's Cardinal eleven is a good one, so let's all get out and see it play!

"Big thing about this place is the amount of rain. Plenty of it. When we wake in the morning, it's not unusual to find five to six inches of water under your cot.

We all wear hip boots, which come in handy. Our unit is building roads, and, believe me, it's a job."

Marv entered the service October, 1942, with his brother, LeRoy. Neither boy has ever had a furlough. Pvt. Wille originally reported to Ft. Lewis, Wash., and went on desert maneuvers in California in March of last year. He went to Hawaii that summer for more training, thence to New Guinea.

"Just sending this message so that my friends won't send any Christmas or birthday packages to me. I expect to leave very soon to return to the States and such packages are unnecessary. I would hate to have them send packages that would never get to me."

It Happened Here

The lecturer said it was unwise for a woman worker to live alone; she said it was too depressing to come home every night to the same set of furniture and with no one to talk to all evening, and even if the overstuffed chair could talk, the conversation would be stuffy; better have a friend, she said, any friend, and then, with a fine flight of imagination, even a plumber. Well, the plumbers we have known are good conversationalists but rather harder to get even than a piece of furniture. Why choose a plumber, anyhow? Our choice would be a laundryman; he comes oftener and has a good line, not too deep but keeps the ball rolling. "I didn't go away for my vacation," he stated. "No, I just stayed home and sat in my chair and relaxed, read a book and sort of relaxed, you know." A kindred interest in relaxing and a book should make for friendship; the garden, too, is a good conversational gambit and he takes time to admire it in all its aspects. "Yes, it's pretty and it looks cool, the coolest place I've seen today and I'll bet it's never hot with all those trees and the shade and no apartment buildings, why, it's almost like the country, so quiet and peaceful. A good place to raise kids", he added enviously. "Yeah, I have four, four little girls." He needs to relax. Our most cheerful friend of the moment is the grocery boy who makes deliveries on his bike, always whistling and never glum. "I use a sled in winter," he says; "you should see me whizzing! I wish I had a team of dogs," he added with a gleam.

"Just thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know that I am still in the swamps of Georgia. I have been kept very busy this past week and things look very bad for the coming week also. This past week I have investigated two rape cases and I just got notice about two hours ago that the first thing in the morning I have to start on another one. The one I am starting on tomorrow is very bad. It is involving a six year old girl and a 20 year old soldier. I am also sorry to say at this time that for the first time in 18 months of this post having WACS one was involved in one.

"Also for the first time since I have been in the Army I have ever had the opportunity of looking down the barrel of a shot gun through an open window. When I looked down the barrel it looked as though it was 20 inches in diameter. This happened while investigating a case of a colored soldier who on Friday night stole a pistol and took it to a colored night club and then handed it to another soldier who was caught with the pistol and we were trying to find the soldier that stole it and he lived in Jigtown, Hinesville, Ga.

"We went to his house about 2:30 a. m. and when we approached the house another man who I didn't know put a shell in the chamber of a rifle. The window was open and I told him that we were the law and that he better not shoot or he would be the man that would be in the wooden box. He didn't pay any attention to us and wanted to know if we wanted to make something of it.

"Nevertheless we didn't want to make trouble unless he wanted to, so he did start and fired one in the air and after he fired one in the air he had seven shots of .45 cal. pistols in his room, one hitting the gun and his hand, the other striking the gun and glanced off and hit him in the shoulder. The man that shot the gun was the man that we attempted to get and he didn't want us to get him. However he is in safe keeping and will be there for some time. And won't get a chance to fire his way out of it as he tried to do.

"I am in the very best of health and the weather down here is as usual, hot and cool at night at some times. We have also been having our supply of rain and more than we need. I will be looking for it to be cold when I get home in October, so I will be wearing my winter clothes."

His address is: Pfc Emmett J. Doyle, CMP, Provost Marshal's Office, Camp Stewart, Ga.

Indiana

Friends of Harry Borth of Bensenville received good news this week when they learned he is now in a hospital in Indiana. Harry was wounded on Bougainville, nearly losing his leg. Penicillin saved it, however, and his sister, Mrs. E. Whitney of B'ville, received word last week that he was in the States. Pfc. Borth then called his sister from the Indiana hospital.

Home on furlough at the time was staff sergeant John Borth, Harry's brother, from San Luis Obispo, California. The brothers hadn't seen each other in nine years. The entire family visited with Harry, who had been away from home 33 months.

Harry is walking with a cane and looks swell, it is reprted. He's feeling fine and tickled to be back in the States. "Best thing of being back here is the American girls, which are the prettiest on earth," said Harry.

Harry received the Purple Heart award, and expects to be in Bensenville on furlough in a couple of weeks.

Italy

Pfc Harvey H. Thompson, 112 East Euclid street, Arlington Heights, Ill., has been cited by his regiment of the 88th Infantry division and awarded the combat infantryman badge for actual participation in combat with the enemy on the Fifth army front in Italy.

Standards for the badge are high. The decoration, which was recently authorized by the war department, is awarded to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat.

The handsome badge consists of a silver rifle set against a background of infantry blue, enclosed in a silver wreath.

So. Pacific

While serving with a Field Hospital unit at a Southwest Pacific base, Corporal John J. Dominick of Palatine, has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant. He has also been awarded the combat star for his part in the Second Battle of Bougainville.

Sgt. Dominick, who resided with his wife, Eva, at R2, Box 42, Palatine, carried on his duties at Headquarters while under Japanese shellfire. He operated a farm in Palatine.

After training at Camp Roberts, California, Sgt. Dominick came overseas in January, 1943. He entered the Army in August, 1942.

Pfc. Melvin Grandt of Wheeling is home on a 45-day sick leave, convalescing from wounds received in the Southwest Pacific. Pfc. Grandt is with the Marines and received his wounds during an invasion in mid-summer. He was hospitalized in Oakland, California, for several weeks before coming home.

So. Dakota

Capt. H. D. Blocksom of Mt. Prospect was home for a few days from Black Hills Ordnance depot, South Dakota. He returned Wednesday after spending 12 days with his family.

New Guinea

Now stationed in New Guinea is Marvin Wille of Mt. Prospect. Marv is serving Uncle Sam with an engineer's outfit, being on NG since June.

"Big thing about this place is the amount of rain. Plenty of it. When we wake in the morning, it's not unusual to find five to six inches of water under your cot.

We all wear hip boots, which come in handy. Our unit is building roads, and, believe me, it's a job."

Marv entered the service October, 1942, with his brother, LeRoy. Neither boy has ever had a furlough. Pvt. Wille originally reported to Ft. Lewis, Wash., and went on desert maneuvers in California in March of last year. He went to Hawaii that summer for more training, thence to New Guinea.

Mulberry Trees Increase

Mulberry trees, source of food for the silk worm, have multiplied from 10 million under cultivation in 1940 to more than 30 million in Brazil.

California

From Shoemaker, Calif., comes word of Lester Guenther of Roselle.

"Thanks a million for sending the paper, it is a very welcomed article.

"I am now in Shoemaker, Calif., after spending 'boot' and basic engineering course at the 'Lakes' and then amphibious diesel school at Richmond, Va.

"Now at Shoemaker I am waiting for my ship, and I hope it will be a destroyer.

"Of all the places I have been you can't beat Great Lakes for liberty and Richmond for their chow."

His new address is: Lester F. Guenther, F1c, Barracks 1431, USNT-DC, Shoemaker, Calif.

From Mojave, Calif., comes word of Orv. Bolte of Arlington Heights.

"Just to let you know that I thought your anniversary issue was fine.

"I have since been moved to the Mojave desert, about 110 miles from Los Angeles. The set up here is very nice, but I think Rog Erber did himself all right by being sent to Arkansas.

"Keep up your fine work of keeping us within distance of home and all of the old gang."

His address is: Cpl Orv Bolte, USMC, VMF 512, Mag. 51, USMCAS, Mojave, Calif.

Owen Nangle of Palatine sends a card from San Diego, Calif. His new address is: O. W. Nangle, AMM1c, 7th Div., No. 243, NAS, San Diego, 35, Calif.

has now been reclassified to 3B, limited service, and has written he expects to be home in time for his birthday November 7. He has been overseas at the front one year.

"Just sending this message so that my friends won't send any Christmas or birthday packages to me. I expect to leave very soon to return to the States and such packages are unnecessary. I would hate to have them send packages that would never get to me."

Technician 4th grade, Casmer J. Misowic of R1, South Plum Grove, Palatine, is a member of the Peninsular base section 78th ordnance depot company, which recently held a banquet to celebrate its second anniversary overseas.

T4 Misowic is the husband of Mrs. Elaine Misowic of Palatine and the son of Mrs. Josephine Nordstrom of Butte, Mont. He has been in the Army since February, 1942.

Charles Snyder, 36657638, APO 698, % PM, New York, N. Y.

It Happened Here

The lecturer said it was unwise for a woman worker to live alone; she said it was too depressing to come home every night to the same set of furniture and with no one to talk to all evening, and even if the overstuffed chair could talk, the conversation would be stuffy; better have a friend, she said, any friend, and then, with a fine flight of imagination, even a plumber. Well, the plumbers we have known are good conversationalists but rather harder to get even than a piece of furniture. Why choose a plumber, anyhow? Our choice would be a laundryman; he comes oftener and has a good line, not too deep but keeps the ball rolling. "I didn't go away for my vacation," he stated. "No, I just stayed home and sat in my chair and relaxed, read a book and sort of relaxed, you know." A kindred interest in relaxing and a book should make for friendship; the garden, too, is a good conversational gambit and he takes time to admire it in all its aspects. "Yes, it's pretty and it looks cool, the coolest place I've seen today and I'll bet it's never hot with all those trees and the shade and no apartment buildings, why, it's almost like the country, so quiet and peaceful. A good place to raise kids", he added enviously. "Yeah, I have four, four little girls." He needs to relax. Our most cheerful friend of the moment is the grocery boy who makes deliveries on his bike, always whistling and never glum. "I use a sled in winter," he says; "you should see me whizzing! I wish I had a team of dogs," he added with a gleam.

Smokeless Powder

The term "smokeless powder" is merely comparative. There is still some smoke in "smokeless" powder, but it is merely a wisp compared with the clouds produced by its predecessor, black powder. Through common usage the term has become universally accepted, but technically it is incorrect.

Smokeless Powder

The term "smokeless powder" is merely comparative. There is still some smoke in "smokeless" powder, but it is merely a wisp compared with the clouds produced by its predecessor, black powder. Through common usage the term has become universally accepted, but technically it is incorrect.

Arizona

Cpl. Jack Haben of Wheeling is home on furlough after graduating from the flexible gunnery school at Yuma, Arizona. Cpl. Haben stood high in all his tests and is now a radio and waist gunner. He will leave for Lincoln, Nebraska, on Saturday after which he expects an assignment to active service.

Notify the publication office as soon as ANY change in address is made.

Keep that paper going to your man in service.

Australia

We're putting Ronald Wessel of Palatine in Australia for, according to our records, that is where his APO is stationed.

"Recently received some Enterprises that were plenty old but read a lot of news I never knew before. Latest word given us by the ship's radio has all been good. Hope it keeps that way. Wish I would meet some more Palatine boys soon."

His address is Pvt. Ronald Wessel, 36665382, APO 923, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Guam

Last reported on Guam is Archie Jennings of Bensenville. He left for overseas last March. His address is: Pfc A. W. Jennings, c-o FPO, San Francisco, Calif.

New Guinea

From New Guinea comes an interesting excerpt of a letter written by James Hauff of Arlington Heights.

"A Jap prisoner was brought into camp the other day. He was hungry and kept pointing to his stomach and mouth. I told him to come with me so I could search him. He thought I was going to have him shot. He stood and stared at me and held up his hands as if he had a gun in them and acted like he was pulling the trigger. I laughed and shook my head and you should have seen the relieved expression on his face. He laughed and came along. He had some vitamin pills and took some from the bottle and then offered some to the Lt. and I. Of course, we did not take any."

His address is: Staff Sgt. James A. Hauff, 36049682, APO 41, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Edward Doyle sends a short note from New Guinea.

"Am in the best of health of what can be expected in the jungles. Received the June 9 and 23 issues of the Herald. Just had another red alert. That makes it every night this week.

"Have been given the good conduct medal as of August 31. Just found out about it. Who couldn't be good down in this country? Ha. Ha. Would like to hear from some of the folks back home."

His address is: Cpl. Edward R. Doyle, 36359354, APO 920, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

From New Guinea comes word from "The New Guinea Rats." It is unsigned.

Policy of the publishers has been never to publish any letter of controversial character unless author is known. This holds true in this case, where the author ridicules the "juke box commandoes" still in the States.

Everyone knows it is mere luck that sends a man either overseas or keeps him in this country. If he is kept in the States, it is the army's reason, and not the individual's.

We, therefore, have withheld the letter from publication awaiting the name of the author.

From New Guinea comes a short note from Clarence Schroeder of Palatine. "Am still over here soldiering, and anxious to get home." His address is: M-Sgt. Clarence J. Schroeder, 20612920, APO 565, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Chicago

James R. Blocki, 428 So Belmont Ave., Arlington Heights, has just returned to the midshipmen's school at Abbott hall, Chicago, after having spent the last 10 weeks at the naval base at Asbury Park, N. J. The midshipmen's course is, 12 weeks after which ensign's commissions are awarded.

Commended in Aleutians

Claude L. Britt, 27, AMM2c, 471 Douglas Ave., Elgin, has been commended by Vice Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher, commander of the Navy's North Pacific force, for "superior performance of duty in aerial flight" in connection with raids of "Empire Express" Ventura bombers against the northern Kurils.

The presentation was made by Commodore Leslie E. Gohres, left in photo, at a ceremony at an advanced Aleutian base. Britt has been a tunnel gunner and navigator in a fleet air wing four task unit which for nine months has been making consistent raids on Paramushiro and Shimushu.

The award was made to Britt for his part in a photographic flight on June 12, 1944, when, finding the assigned target area, Shimushu island, covered by fog, he voluntarily agreed to proceed to reconnoiter the west coast of Paramushiro.

On this flight the long-sought-for Japanese airfield at Daigo Zaki and the installations at Kakumabotau were sighted through a break in the fog. Two runs were made, a low altitude bombing run at 500 feet being followed with a strafing run at 100 feet. During both runs the plane was opposed by the cross fire of ground machine guns.

A number of excellent photographs were obtained and those made possible accurate plotting of installations.

The citation concludes with the statement that Britt's conduct throughout "was in keeping with the highest traditions of the naval service."

Britt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Britt of 471 Douglas avenue, Elgin. His wife, the former Evelyn Lang, is making her home on R1, Arlington Heights, with their two children, Ralph Eugene, 6, and Gary Leroy, 2.

Britt was employed by the Stewart-Warner Corp., 1826 Diversey parkway, Chicago, before entering the service.

He has flown on more than a dozen missions to the Kurils.

Arkansas

John Bruhn of East Maine, who was inducted into the army and reported at Fort Sheridan on September 19, has been sent to Camp Robertson, Little Rock, Arkansas, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bruhn, Sr.

Last Vermont Panther

The last panther killed in Vermont was shot here in 1881 and it now is on view at the State house in Montpelier.

Virginia

Herbert Noftz of Palatine sends a communique from Creeds Field, Va.

"I wish to thank the Legion auxiliary and all those people connected with the sending of the Palatine Enterprise to us in the service. After living in Palatine so long and knowing most everyone, news from home is priceless.

"After serving two years at Naval air station, Glenview, I've now been transferred for duty at an outlying air field, 35 miles southeast of Norfolk, Va. It's a very small base with a complement of about 400 men. I'm in charge of the gasoline trucks and all motorized equipment here. I like my new duty very much because of my pre-war experience in the motor truck field in my father's business.

"We have liberty almost every night, so my wife Florence and I have rented a house here and are now at home at Creeds, Va. Palatine isn't a very large town, but compared to the towns here it's a big city.

"Last Thursday the worst hurricane in many years swept through here. The wind and rain had a velocity of 100 miles per hour. It destroyed everything from trees to churches. Our little house stood up alright, and the base had only slight damage. The weather is always very damp because the land is so near sea level."

His address is: Herbert Noftz, MoMM3c, NAAS, Creeds Field, Norfold, Va.

Now back at Norfolk, Virginia, is SKD2c Dougald Gilbert of Mt. Prospect. Doug left to return to base last Wednesday after 8 days at home. He has been stationed at Norfolk for some time, and expects to remain there at least until January.

Kentucky

This week adding his name to the more than 300 Palatine servicemen receiving Paddock Publications is Harold English. His address is: Pvt. Harold English, Co. C, 11th Bn., ARTC, 4th Platoon, Ft. Knox, Ky.

Admiralty

From the Admiralty islands comes word of Richard Taege of Arlington Heights.

"Things are pretty much the same on these 'beautiful islands.' Bet I won't bother to see Dottie Lamour in any more of her pictures as a south sea island girl. I guess she built all of us up to an awful let-down.

"The Bob Hope show was out here for several days with Frances Langford and Jerry Colonna. The girls sure were a welcome sight, because I hadn't seen a girl since last April. They're as scarce here as the boys are in the States.

"Things seem to be moving pretty fast and I think it is making Japan sweat it out a little more. She doesn't want to take the beating Germany is taking. I wouldn't be surprised if we heard of another big landing in this theater in the near future.

"Have had but three copies of the Herald in the last six months, but now that I'm situated expect they will start rolling in."

His address is: S-Sgt. Richard H. Taege, 36302251, APO 201, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Warren Hardire Johnson, 21, Box 279, Bensenville, was commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Naval reserve when he graduated recently from the Naval reserve midshipmen's school at Abbott Hall, Northwestern university, Chicago.

His completed four-month course consisted of navigation, seamanship, damage control, communications, ordnance and gunnery. The newly commissioned Ensign will now see action with the fleet as a deck officer.

Nebraska

Home for 36 hours over the week end was Vance Folkman of Arlington Heights. Vance is stationed at Lincoln, Nebraska. He arrived home Sunday, but had to leave again Monday night.

Pacific

From somewhere in the Pacific comes word of G. D. Boobyer of Palatine.

"Glad to see the recent bond drive went over the top at home. Have also read about the carnivals and what not they've been having in Palatine. That Enterprise reaches me quite regularly and I enjoy it.

"Weather here is about the same as that at home. We need rain at the moment and it's very hot. Sure wish I could be home now for football season.

"That is swell news in France. I hope it keeps up, as it will shorten the war considerably. Wish I could be with the boys there. Nothing doing out here at the moment."

American Airlines advertisement, Sept. 12, 1944

"American Airlines Inc. has placed an order with the Douglas Aircraft Co. for 55 huge, four-motored Flagships. Deliveries are scheduled to begin about June, 1945. The DC-4 has been more thoroughly tested than any other plane ever put into service by an Airline—tested in more than one hundred million miles of war operations all over the world . . . Never in the history of aviation has any other transport plane made such amazing records for fast, dependable and efficient performance under all conditions."

Here's a chance for you to do interesting work and prepare for a future career. Douglas Aircraft Company needs 4,000 additional people at once to build military transport planes.

Don't be misled by any feeling that the war is nearly over and that it's hardly worthwhile to take a so-called war plant job now. There are no "cut-backs" in sight here. It's just the opposite. Read again the excerpt from an advertisement released by American Airlines Inc. to newspapers throughout the country recently.

Today Douglas is building planes for victory. Tomorrow we will build them for the airlines. You can get expert training here in aircraft skills that could well qualify you for profitable employment building peace-time airplanes or in the huge maintenance and operations plants which the airlines and aircargo enterprises will set up all over the country after the war. And you can be trained in working with the lighter metals such as aluminum and magnesium which will be used in the manufacture of so many post-war consumer goods.

Interesting JOBS

Now open for Men and Women who plan for

POST-WAR OPPORTUNITY

Meanwhile you will be well paid for enjoyable work. Experienced or inexperienced . . . we train you so that you are bound to make good in fabrication, shop, assembly and installation work . . . what we term "beating on the airplanes." As interesting work as you'll ever find.

If you want to serve your country, learn a new business, make good money, and really enjoy your job, don't delay. Come to any of our employment offices today. They are at 4070 Milwaukee Avenue near Irving Park; 2717½ Milwaukee Avenue near Logan Square. Or you can come direct to the plant employment office at Mannheim, Higgins and Devon. Come early in the morning. We will be looking for you to come in.

Australia

We're putting Ronald Wessel of Palatine in Australia for, according to our records, that is where his APO is stationed.

"Recently received some Enterprises that were plenty old but read a lot of news I never knew before. Latest word given us by the ship's radio has all been good. Hope it keeps that way. Wish I would meet some more Palatine boys soon."

His address is Pvt. Ronald Wessel, 36665382, APO 923, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Guam

Last reported on Guam is Archie Jennings of Bensenville. He left for overseas last March. His address is: Pfc A. W. Jennings, c-o FPO, San Francisco, Calif.

New Guinea

From New Guinea comes an interesting excerpt of a letter written by James Hauff of Arlington Heights.

"A Jap prisoner was brought into camp the other day. He was hungry and kept pointing to his stomach and mouth. I told him to come with me so I could search him. He thought I was going to have him shot. He stood and stared at me and held up his hands as if he had a gun in them and acted like he was pulling the trigger. I laughed and shook my head and you should have seen the relieved expression on his face. He laughed and came along. He had some vitamin pills and took some from the bottle and then offered some to the Lt. and I. Of course, we did not take any."

His address is: Staff Sgt. James A. Hauff, 36049682, APO 41, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Edward Doyle sends a short note from New Guinea.

"Am in the best of health of what can be expected in the jungles. Received the June 9 and 23 issues of the Herald. Just had another red alert. That makes it every night this week.

"Have been given the good conduct medal as of August 31. Just found out about it. Who couldn't be good down in this country? Ha. Ha. Would like to hear from some of the folks back home."

His address is: Cpl. Edward R. Doyle, 36359354, APO 920, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

From New Guinea comes word from "The New Guinea Rats." It is unsigned.

Policy of the publishers has been never to publish any letter of controversial character unless author is known. This holds true in this case, where the author ridicules the "juke box commandoes" still in the States.

Everyone knows it is mere luck that sends a man either overseas or keeps him in this country. If he is kept in the States, it is the army's reason, and not the individual's.

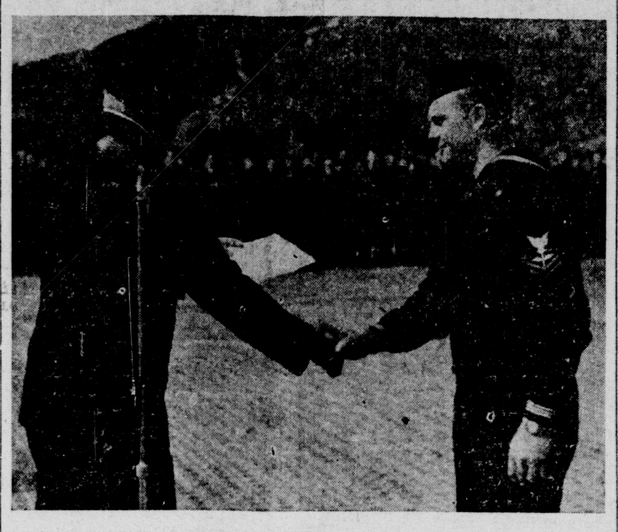

We, therefore, have withheld the letter from publication awaiting the name of the author.

From New Guinea comes a short note from Clarence Schroeder of Palatine. "Am still over here soldiering, and anxious to get home." His address is: M-Sgt. Clarence J. Schroeder, 20612920, APO 565, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Chicago

James R. Blocki, 428 So Belmont Ave., Arlington Heights, has just returned to the midshipmen's school at Abbott hall, Chicago, after having spent the last 10 weeks at the naval base at Asbury Park, N. J. The midshipmen's course is 12 weeks after which ensign's commissions are awarded.

Commended in Aleutians

Claude L. Britt, 27, AMM2c, 471 Douglas Ave., Elgin, has been commended by Vice Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher, commander of the Navy's North Pacific force, for "superior performance of duty in aerial flight" in connection with raids of "Empire Express" Ventura bombers against the northern Kurils.

The presentation was made by Commodore Leslie E. Gohres, left in photo, at a ceremony at an advanced Aleutian base. Britt has been a tunnel gunner and navigator in a fleet air wing four task unit which for nine months has been making consistent raids on Paramushiro and Shimushu.

The award was made to Britt for his part in a photographic flight on June 12, 1944, when, finding the assigned target area, Shimushu island, covered by fog, he voluntarily agreed to proceed to reconnoiter the west coast of Paramushiro.

On this flight the long-sought-for Japanese airfield at Daigo Zaki and the installations at Kakumabotau were sighted through a break in the fog. Two runs were made, a low altitude bombing run at 500 feet being followed with a strafing run at 100 feet. During both runs the plane was opposed by the cross fire of ground machine guns.

A number of excellent photographs were obtained and those made possible accurate plotting of installations.

The citation concludes with the statement that Britt's conduct throughout "was in keeping with the highest traditions of the naval service."

Britt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Britt of 471 Douglas avenue, Elgin. His wife, the former Evelyn Lang, is making her home on R1, Arlington Heights, with their two children, Ralph Eugene, 6, and Gary Leroy, 2.

Britt was employed by the Stewart-Warner Corp., 1826 Diversey parkway, Chicago, before entering the service.

He has flown on more than a dozen missions to the Kurils.

Arkansas

John Bruhn of East Maine, who was inducted into the army and reported at Fort Sheridan on September 19, has been sent to Camp Robertson, Little Rock, Arkansas, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bruhn, Sr.

Last Vermont Panther

The last panther killed in Vermont was shot here in 1881 and it now is on view at the State house in Montpelier.

Virginia

Herbert Noftz of Palatine sends a communique from Creeds Field, Va.

"I wish to thank the Legion auxiliary and all those people connected with the sending of the Palatine Enterprise to us in the service. After living in Palatine so long and knowing most everyone, news from home is priceless.

"After serving two years at Naval air station, Glenview, I've now been transferred for duty at an outlying air field, 35 miles southeast of Norfolk, Va. It's a very small base with a complement of about 400 men. I'm in charge of the gasoline trucks and all motorized equipment here. I like my new duty very much because of my pre-war experience in the motor truck field in my father's business.

"We have liberty almost every night, so my wife Florence and I have rented a house here and are now at home at Creeds, Va. Palatine isn't a very large town, but compared to the towns here it's a big city.

"Last Thursday the worst hurricane in many years swept through here. The wind and rain had a velocity of 100 miles per hour. It destroyed everything from trees to churches. Our little house stood up alright, and the base had only slight damage. The weather is always very damp because the land is so near sea level."

His address is: Herbert Noftz, MoMM3c, NAAS, Creeds Field, Norfold, Va.

Now back at Norfolk, Virginia, is SKD2c Dougald Gilbert of Mt. Prospect. Doug left to return to base last Wednesday after 8 days at home. He has been stationed at Norfolk for some time, and expects to remain there at least until January.

Kentucky

This week adding his name to the more than 300 Palatine servicemen receiving Paddock Publications is Harold English. His address is: Pvt. Harold English, Co. C, 11th Bn., ARTC, 4th Platoon, Ft. Knox, Ky.

Admiralty

From the Admiralty islands comes word of Richard Taege of Arlington Heights.

"Things are pretty much the same on these 'beautiful islands.' Bet I won't bother to see Dottie Lamour in any more of her pictures as a south sea island girl. I guess she built all of us up to an awful let-down.

"The Bob Hope show was out here for several days with Frances Langford and Jerry Colonna. The girls sure were a welcome sight, because I hadn't seen a girl since last April. They're as scarce here as the boys are in the States.

"Things seem to be moving pretty fast and I think it is making Japan sweat it out a little more. She doesn't want to take the beating Germany is taking. I wouldn't be surprised if we heard of another big landing in this theater in the near future.

"Have had but three copies of the Herald in the last six months, but now that I'm situated expect they will start rolling in."

His address is: S-Sgt. Richard H. Taege, 36302251, APO 201, c-o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

"Glad to see the recent bond drive went over the top at home. Have also read about the carnivals and what not they've been having in Palatine. That Enterprise reaches me quite regularly and I enjoy it.

"Weather here is about the same as that at home. We need rain at the moment and it's very hot. Sure wish I could be home now for football season.

"That is swell news in France. I hope it keeps up, as it will shorten the war considerably. Wish I could be with the boys there. Nothing doing out here at the moment."

American Airlines advertisement, Sept. 12, 1944

"American Airlines Inc. has placed an order with the Douglas Aircraft Co. for 55 huge, four-motored Flagships. Deliveries are scheduled to begin about June, 1945. The DC-4 has been more thoroughly tested than any other plane ever put into service by an Airline—tested in more than one hundred million miles of war operations all over the world . . . Never in the history of aviation has any other transport plane made such amazing records for fast, dependable and efficient performance under all conditions."

Here's a chance for you to do interesting work and prepare for a future career. Douglas Aircraft Company needs 4,000 additional people at once to build military transport planes.

Don't be misled by any feeling that the war is nearly over and that it's hardly worthwhile to take a so-called war plant job now. There are no "cut-backs" in sight here. It's just the opposite. Read again the excerpt from an advertisement released by American Airlines Inc. to newspapers throughout the country recently.

Today Douglas is building planes for victory. Tomorrow we will build them for the airlines. You can get expert training here in aircraft skills that could well qualify you for profitable employment building peace-time airplanes or in the huge maintenance and operations plants which the airlines and aircargo enterprises will set up all over the country after the war. And you can be trained in working with the lighter metals such as aluminum and magnesium which will be used in the manufacture of so many post-war consumer goods.
